FADE IN

EXT- EARTH- REMOTE SIDE- NIGHT

The year is 2020. Emanon stands on a mountain top staring up at the sky. He's wearing a silver jumpsuit, and a strange collar around his neck. He turns and spans the horizon.

EMANON

My name is Ramone.I'm telling you this because now there is no more room for me on this planet. There are no more wars because there are no more weapons of any kind.I'm waiting here on the remote side of this planet to meet the Zartolians. That's what I call them, because I cannot pronounce their names in a way that you will understand. I'm just an American teenager who loves people animals and going to school.I'm eighteen years old and I'm going to tell you this. God has a plan for every one of you. Well, lets just start my story from the beginning.

INT- RAMONE'S HOME-DAY

Year 2018.Gas prices are $6.14 a gallon.Unemployment is at an all time high. This is what Ramone is hearing on the news.He decided to turn the channel to something a little lighter.

NEOMI Ramone,come here.

RAMONE

Yes grandma.

NEOMI

Ramone,I told you.Do not waist your time watching to because you cannot believe what you see and hear anyway.

RAMONE

But Grandma. How am I suppose to know what's going on out there if you don't let me watch it on tv?

NEOMI

Look,Ramone.God has his eyes on everything. Don't you go worrying about all of that now. Ok?

RAMONE

NEOMI

Anyway Ramone. You are one of the smartest students high school. God has a plan for you. I can feel it in my bones.

RAMONE

I wish I could feel something Grandma.

NEOMI

Ramone? I have some lunch for you to take to school.I want you to come straight home when you get out.

RAMONE

But Grandma.I was going to meet up with Jerod. We were going stargazing. We found a really cool spot in the woods. No one knows about this spot either.

NEOMI

Look Ramone. You and your imagination are going to get the best of me yet. Anyway, there's too many gangs in the neighborhood.

Ramone started going down memory lane about his mother and father.

RAMONE

Mom? Dad? I'm going to bed so I can wake up on time for school tomorrow.

MOTHER

Ok honey.

They hugged and kissed each other good night.Ramone went upstairs.He heard his father talking to his mother.

FATHER

Lets you and me go out on the front porch.

MOTHER

Ok dear. I would like that.

INT- GUNSHOTS - NIGHT

Ramone was brushing his teeth when a feeling came over him. The feeling went away and he went to bed. As he drifted off to sleep a loud sound woke him up. The sound of screeching tires, loud voices, and then gun shots. He dived on the floor. Hit his head on the bed railing and knock himself out cold.

INT - HOSPITAL - DAY

The next morning Ramone woke up in the hospital with a terrible headache. He called for the nurse on the speakerphone. The nurse enters.

NURSE

Hello.I'm Jacqueline.How are you feeling today?

RAMONE

Besides the headache I feel fine. How did I get here and what happened?

NURSE

You had a concussion from a blow to your head. What do you remember?

RAMONE

I remember brushing my teeth and I woke up here.

NURSE

You have short-term memory loss.

RAMONE

What is that?

NURSE

It's a form of amnesia but it will pass. I need to check your vitals.

The nurse checked Ramone's vitals.

RAMONE

Can I call my parents?

NURSE

Sure. I'll arrange it.

The nurse injected something into an iv. Things started getting blurry. Ramone started seeing things moving in slow motion. He fell asleep. Ramone woke up the next day to see two detectives standing outside of his door talking to the doctor. They entered and introduced themselves.

1ST DETECTIVE

Hello.My name is Dan McKenzie and this here is my partner. Janet Haldini.

One cop was a white male and the other was a black female. They both were polite.

DAN

I would like to ask you a few questions if you don't mind.

RAMONE

About what?

DAN

About the shooting last night.

RAMONE

DAN

The shooting that occurred in front of your house.

RAMONE

I don't remember any shooting.

The nurse walked in.

NURSE

Look detectives. This patient is suffering from short term memory loss.

DAN

Look. Two people were shot to death on their front porch last night.

RAMONE

(panicking)

On the front porch? Oh no! Mom!Dad!

Ramone tried to get out of bed. The nurse called for help. The two detectives held him down. Then three orderlies came running inside of the room to assist until the nurse gave Ramone a shot in the buttocks. Ramone started seeing things moving in slow motion again.

DAN

Do you think that I was too direct, Janet?

JANET

You could have prepared him a little better than that. By the way.Look at that sky.

DAN

I'll be damn. That is the strangest cloud I had ever seen. It's purple and spinning like a funnel cloud. Janet. Check the weather on the kid's tv. He's asleep anyway.

The weather report was on.

WEATHERMAN

The temperature today will be high in the low seventies. There will be no chance of rain, although people have been calling here asking me questions about the strange colored cloud rotating over Harlem. What's happening is, Mars is passing between Earth and Jupiter so the reflection from the sun which bounces off of Jupiter and Mars is casting it's results onto the various parts of our planet. So don't be alarm. It's all about the beautiful colors. You probably won't see them again for about a hundred years.

DAN

Do you believe that shit?

JANET

DAN

They will tell you anything. Lets go back to the station.

INT-NEOMI'S HOME-DAY

Neomi Tyler is an old school grandmother. She doesn't watch tv unless it's Leave It To Beaver. She was asleep when the doorbell had rung. Doorbell rings.

NEOMI

Oh my goodness. Who could that be at the door now?

Doorbell rings again.

NEOMI

I'm coming I tell you. I know this better not be one of them Jehova Witnesses people. Trying to preach to me about God, Jesus, and all that.

Doorbell Rings

NEOMI (yelling)
I'm going to kill someone right now.You here?

NEOMI

Who is it?

CLARICE

My name is Clarice Johnson. I'm representing Ramone Aki.

NEOMI

Are you one of them lawyers I see on ty?

CLARICE

No.I'm a social worker.I'm here because you are his only living relative and I'm hoping that you can help the state by letting Ramone live with you. This way the state won't have to put him into a foster home.

NEOMI

He's my only grandson.My home is his home.

CLARICE

Miss Tyler? Thank you so much. Will tomorrow be ok to bring him by?

NEOMI

That will be fine. I'll be waiting.

CLARICE

Will 10:00 in the morning be ok?

NEOMI

That will be fine.

Neomi opened the door to let Clarice out. She watched Clarice get into her car and drive off. She looked at the sky.

NEOMI

That is a strange color for a cloud. I've never seen a cloud that looks like that.

INT- NEOMI'S HOME- DAY

The next day at about ten o'clock,Ramone and the social worker had arrived.The doorbell rung.Neomi had just finished her coffee.

NEOMI

I bet that's the social worker with my grandson.

Neomi answers the door.

NEOMI

Here's my handsome grandson.

RAMONE

Hi Grandma.

NEOMI

Hi,Ramone. You come right in here. You hear?

RAMONE

CLARICE

Thank you Miss Tyler. He's a fine young man. Ramone is going through a lot of hidden feelings.

NEOMI

Don't you worry about Ramone. He'll be fine now.

Clarice left and waved goodbye. EXT- PROBE- NIGHT

In the 20th century we had sent a probe out into space for exploration. The probe passed Mars.It passed Jupiter.It passed Pluto and eventually left the solar system,never to be heard of again.As the probe kept soring through space,away from our watchful eyes.It entered the watchful eyes of someone else or something else.

EXT- PLANET ZARTOL - NIGHT

The inhabitants of this planet had evolved so much that all physical labor is accomplished by thought alone. In fact, they did not need any bodies of their own. They have the most perfect world. There world is so perfect that they wanted to share it with other species around the universe. They have created a device that have to be worn by every species on their planet. No matter how small or how tall you are. This device allows your thoughts to be converted into a language based on another species thought patterns and vise versa. You may call it a thought converter. The Zartolians do not personally get involved with the problems of other species on their worlds. What they will do is find a world of their choosing. A device will be placed somewhere hidden. Any species can use the device. It's up to the species to find out how it works. If the species is worthy it will be contacted and brought to the planet Zartol to join the ranks of the Zartolians.

EXT-ZARTOLIANS- NIGHT

As the Zartolians observed and scanned the space around their galaxy, all seemed normal until they noticed an object flying through their space. They used their collective thoughts to scanned the object. They scanned the object for life. There were none. They scanned the object to see if it could be used as a weapon. There was no indication of any form of energy that could be distructive. The Zartolians tract the trajectory of the object through a wormhole. They went into the wormhole and came out through the other side. They flew towards a yellow star and came upon the planets that orbited it. The trajectory of the probe had led them towards a blue and white planet. The Zartolians decided to release a probe of their own in the form of a purple cloud. The probe would blend in with the white clouds of the planet. The probe started spinning.

ZARTOLIANS

We better drop the device down there and hope that whom ever finds it will find his true calling. Lets hope this species is worthy of it.

INT- HARLEM, NEW YORK- NIGHT

There is a gang in Harlem called the Black Dragon. They care about no one. The police can't control them because there are too many. Their leader's name is Mandrid. The police could never pin any crime on him because he always had an alibi. Once a week the Dragons have their meetings in back of an old abandoned warehouse. Mandrid called the meeting to order.

MANDRID

Who are we?

THE GANG (shouting)

Black Dragons

MANDRID

We are one hundred strong. No one challenges us. We take what we want. We do as we please. Lets hear the report. Eric. You're on.

ERIC

Ok Mandrid. My team went over to Chen's Chinese Restaurant and stole $914.00.

MANDRID

Give it to the accountant. How much is in our treasury?

ACCOUNTANT

Twenty seven thousand dollars.

MANDRID

We can buy plenty of guns with that.

The Dragons roared.

MANDRID

Next report.Jahad,report.

JAHAD

Ok.My team went over to Hasson's Jewelry Store and stole some gems.

MANDRID

Good. We can fence them. Slade, what about that Ramone kid?

SLADE

My team and I drove over to his house and found his parents sitting on their front porch. We got out of the car and asked to speak to Ramone. His father stood up and said." You punks better get away from my house." His mother got up, and said that she was going to call the police. Call the Po po? Fire!We started shooting and they started doing that death dance. We had the AK-47s, pump shot guns and hand guns.I mean it was a party. Slick here walked up to the mother with the pump shot gun. Pointed it at her face and shot the gun. He must had shot her in the neck because her whole head flew off. It bounced off of the wall and rolled down the stairs. Her eyes were wide open. Her mouth was still moving as if she was trying to speak. Slick walked over to the head. Picked it up and stuffed a picture of a black dragon in her mouth. He put the head in front of his eyes and said, "Black Dragon bitch." That's when we jumped back into our cars and drove off.

MANDRID

That's how you leave your signature. Any questions? Well then. This time next week. Lets keep the fear going in Harlem. Who are we?

THE GANG (shouting in unison) Black Dragons.Black Dragons

MANDRID This meetings over.

INE/EXT- RAMONE- DAY

Ramone left for school after his grandmother had given him his lunch. He left thinking about his mother and father's funeral. As he approaches the school he hears his name being called.

SLADE (yelling)

Ramone?

Ramone stopped and turned around. There were four guys walking towards him.

RAMONE What do you want?

SLADE

Your answer.

RAMONE

Answer to what?

SLADE

You was suppose to give us your answer about joining our gang at about eight o'clock the other day. We came by your house and saw your mother and father on their front porch. We asked for you but your father started talking smack to us and your mother started to call the police. We couldn't have that.

RAMONE

(angry)

It was you.

SLICK

(laughing)

Your mother shouldn't have lost her head.

The gang started laughing at the humor. Ramone balled up his fist. Punched one of the gang members. Threw his backpack at the rest of them and ran away. He was a good distance away from them. He ran to his secret hideout in the woods.

EXT- RAMONE'S SECRET HIDEOUT- DAY

Ramone heard a low humming sound coming from inside of some bushes. He pushed the bushes aside and saw something at the bottom of them. He picked it up and the humming stopped.

RAMONE

Looks like someone had lost a pretty cool choker.

He tried it on.

RAMONE

Fits just right. I better not wear it though because the owner might see it and say that I stole it.

He decided to take it off.

RAMONE

I can't find the hook.

He tried running his fingers around it to find a crack but there weren't any.

RAMONE

That's impossible. Well I might as well get comfortable since this will be my new home.

It was getting late and Ramone was getting tired. He fell asleep and dreamed. Strange dreams. Dreams of floating far away. Strange creatures. All were floating. A sound suddenly wakes him. A racoon was hissing at him.

RAMONE

(scared)

Go away.

The racoon vanished.

RAMONE

(surprise)

How did the racoon do that?

Ramone ran out of the woods. He kept on running until two gang members jumped him and knocked him down. He looked up.

RAMONE

(yells)

Don't hit me!

The gang member's arms just vanished. They ran away screaming but there was no blood anywhere to be found.

RAMONE

I don't believe this. First the racoon and now this. I have to think on this for a while.

EXT- BACK IN THE WOODS- DAY

Ramone went back to his hideout in the woods. He did some experimenting on plants. He picked off a leaf from a tree and placed it on the ground.

RAMONE

Vanish.

The leaf disappeared. He saw a tree branch on the ground.

RAMONE

Vanish.

The branch disappeared.

RAMONE

This didn't happen until I had put this device around my neck

The device started tingling. Ramone'S whole body started tingling. His clothes started to glow. Then it started to change shape. It became a one-piece jumpsuit. Then the color started to change. It became a silvery color.

RAMONE

What's going on here?

Ramone's shoes blended in with the jumpsuit. He couldn't tell where the shoes began and the jumpsuit ended. It was all one piece. It started getting darker. The jumpsuit maintained it's glow but not as much. It started to rain and then thunder. Lightning struck a tree branch. The branch fell towards him. He looked up, shocked. Covered his face. Nothing happened.

RAMONE

(asking himself)
What happened to the Branch? This is getting stranger by the minute.I didn't say anything this time and the branch still disappeared. Just before it happened my collar started tingling. The only thing I said to myself was no. That's when the branch disappeared. You don't suppose.....No.It can't be.

He looked at a nearby tree and thought the word vanish and the tree disappeared. He imagined that the tree was still there and the tree came back.

RAMONE

This is all too weird.

He looked at his clothes.

RAMONE

I can't wear this in my neighborhood. The police will pick me up and ask me all kinds of questions which I have no answers. Even the gangs will approach me.

He saw some glass on the ground and tried to cut the choker off.

RAMONE

Not a scratch.

He decided to take off the suit.

RAMONE

I can't find a catch or a seam.

He scraped the glass over the suit.

RAMONE

I can't cut it either.

He felt around the suit.

RAMONE

This suit has no pockets and my wallet is gone. I have no identification on me and I can't tell the cops my real name. I have no other name to use. Wait a minute. What is noname spelled backwards? Emanon. Ok then. Ramone is out. Hello world. Here comes Emanon.

EXT- HARLEM STREET - DAY

The traffic in Harlem was moving fine. People were going on about their usual business. Shopping. Kids playing. Police patrolling the area. It was a normal quiet day until a commotion was heard down the street. A crowd was gathering. Police sirens were going off. News cameramen were at the scene. Two teenagers had wandered into traffic. Looking like they were in shock. They didn't have any arms. The ambulance came onto the scene. The parmedics jumped out of their vehicles and grabbed their equipment. They ran over to both teenagers. Their faces had the look of fear in them. The paramedics strapped them on the stretcher. The ambulance rushed the teenagers to the hospital. They called ahead to make sure that they were prepared for the unusual case.

EXT/INT- HOSPITAL- DAY

When they arrived at the hospital the teenagers were rushed to the emergency room. The doctors and nurses were all shocked at the scene. Two teenage boys.Both armless and in shock. The doctor examined the place where the arms should be.

DR. LOGAN

You can clearly see the edge of the bones, veins, arteries, and even the blood flowing. The strangest thing is the shoulder where the arms should be is not bleeding. How could that be? This is impossible. It's as if it was never there. The skin should had closed around the opening. Why doesn't the blood run out? It's as if a force field is blocking the opening. I need a blood test, A Cat Scan, X-rays. Put the blood pressure cuff around their legs. It won't be that accurate but I need something to go by. Also.I want an EKG on them boys. stat.

The doctor leaned over the boys to introduce himself.

DR. LOGAN My name is Dr.Ben Logan.

What are your names?

The boys said nothing. The doctor checked their eyes and ears. He checked their temperatures. Everything was normal. The doctor started to walk away.

SLADE

Slade.

DR.LOGAN

What did you say?

SLADE

My name is Slade.

ERIC

And my name is Eric.

DR.LOGAN

Well Slade and Eric. Can either one of you tell me what happened to your arms?

SLADE

They just disappeared.

Just disappeared?

ERIC

Yeah.Disappeared.

SLADE

Look Doc.Can you help us?

ERIC

Yeah doctor.Can you help us?

DR.LOGAN

I could give you false arms but you won't be able to use them at all. We have a method where we can connect your veins and arteries but in your case,it's like your veins, arteries, and nerves were still There but yet not. Not here anyway.I mean,I don't know what I mean. It's like your arms are in another dimension which doesn't make sense. Did either of you come in contact with anything or anyone?

SLADE

We got into a fight with another kid.

ERIC

That's when our arms had disappeared.

DR. LOGAN

Is that all you remember?

ERIC

That's all there is doc.

DR. LOGAN

Do you feel any pain?

SLADE

No.

ERIC

Me neither.

The two teenagers were the talk of the hospital. The staff tried to enter their room to get a closer look at the armless teenagers. The boys were too ashamed to see anyone. The reporters were outside telling their version of the story.

EXT- EMANON'S HIDEOUT- DAY

EMANON

I better not go back to my grandmother's house dressed like this. It will attract too much attention. I got it. I'll use the park phone.

Emanon walked over to the phone. It didn't work.

Just my luck. Any other time... Wait a minute. A dial tone. I don't have any money. If I only...

Just then the phone had rung on the other end.

EMANON

Hello ? Grandma? Is that you?

NEOMI

Ramone? Where are you? I was worried to death.

EMANON

Sorry Grandma. I was walking around thinking about my mom and dad.I needed a change. So I went and joined the army. I have to report to base in the morning.

NEOMI

Oh Ramone. At least the government will take care of you. Do you want me to pack anything for you?

EMANON

No Grandma.My sergeant gave me my uniform already. I won't be coming home but I will call you from time to time. Ok?

NEOMI

Ok Ramone.I love you.

Emanon had hung up the phone. He noticed a newspaper blowing in the wind. It was the Harlem Gazette. He sat and read it.

The Black Dragon Gang has struck again. No witnesses will come forward. People are afraid to tell what they had seen. Out of fear of retaliation from the gang. Also the war on the Middle East is still going on. The people over in Bagdad are crying for Allah to help them. Irac has been ruined. All of the land Jesus Christ had roamed on was destroyed.

Emanon was furious.He kept on reading.Oil companies had increased the price of oil and gas for the people. The people are using their grocery money to buy gas to get to work. The low-income workers are now in poverty. The people are praying to God to help them. All over the world people are praying for help. The authorities are no help. Drug dealers are saying that the police are keeping drug money for themselves after they had been arrested. Police say about one kilo of cocain and $1500 in cash was found plus two semi-automatic weapons was found on the premises. The drug dealers say they had seven kilos of cocain and $10,000 in cash.

Officer

What do you expect them to say when they get caught? Drug dealers would love to get even with police officers as revenge for arresting them. You can't believe what they say.

There was a picture of the cop grinning like a cat who'd just swallowed the canary. Emanon looked up at the sky.

EMANON

That is a strange color for a cloud

Emanon saw an old pair of pants lying on the ground. He tried to put them on but some kind of force wouldn't let him.

I guess it's not meant for me to wear any clothes over this outfit but you know something? It really doesn't matter anymore. It must be getting chilly out here because I can see my breath in front of my face but I don't feel cold at all. In fact, It feels like it should be seventy degrees out here.

EXT- STREETS OF HARLEM- NIGHT

Emanon started walking the streets. He saw a group of guys standing on the corner. As he approached them they turned around.

1ST GUY

Look at what we have here. A Star Trek fanatic.

2ND GUY

Going to a costume party?

Emanon didn't say anything.

THIRD GUY

Want to buy some crack?

EMANON

I want you to take everything out of your pockets and drop them on the ground.

The guys were shocked at the nerve of someone like him who was anxious to die.

EMANON

I want you to give a message to whom ever you are working for.

The guys started to approach him. He started looking at their clothes and their clothes had disappeared. The drugs and guns fell to the ground. They were all standing naked in front of him. They went for their guns and started shooting. They didn't know that there was a force field surrounding him. He wasn't sure about it either. Emanon made their guns disappear.

EMANON

Get lost and tell your friends Emanon is here. By the way. Give your boss a message.

They took off running into the night.

INT- THE BLACK DRAGON'S HIDEOUT- NIGHT

They ran into an old abandoned building where they met Mandrid.

MANDRID

What the hell happened to you and what happened to your clothes?

GANG MEMBER

Some dude in a silver suit did this to us. Called himself Emanon. We shot him and nothing happened. He said to give you a Message.

MANDRID

Well? I'm waiting.

GANG MEMBER

He didn't say anything and we didn't stop to asked.

MANDRID

(shouting)

Oh shit!

MARK

TOBY

Yeah. What is it?

MANDRID

What happened to your hands?

Mark and Toby looked at their hands and their hands weren't there.

MARK

Emanon did this, Mandrid.

MANDRID

Get to the hospital.

TOBY

We need some clothes.

MANDRID

Get some out the back.

Mark and Toby went towards the door.

MARK

Mandrid? Will you open the door for us?

Mandrid opened the door. Mark and Toby went towards the clothes.

MARK

Mandrid?

Mandrid yells back.

MANDRID

What?

MARK

Will you help us dress?

MANDRID

Look.I'll open doors for you but you're on your own there.

EXT- THE CORNER- NIGHT

Back at the corner where the incident had happened, the police were called onto the scene. They had received a description of the guys on the corner. The police patrolled the area. They saw a person in a silver suit that fit the description of one of the guys they were looking for. They flashed their lights and spoke through a speaker on their car.

OFFICER

Freeze!

Emanon stopped.

2ND OFFICER

Put your hands up against the wall.

Emanon did.

1ST OFFICER

Show me some ID.

EMANON

I have none.

1ST OFFICER

Why are you dressed like that?

EMANON

It's my right.

2ND OFFICER

Smart ass. Put your hands behind your back smart ass.

The officer slapped the handcuffs on Emanon's wrist.

1ST OFFICER

Ok smart ass. Not so smart now are you?

EMANON

Are you going to arrest me?

2ND OFFICER

In due time.Do you know anything about the Black Dragon Gang?

Yes.I'm looking for them.

1ST OFFICER

Oh. So you want to join them?

EMANON

No. I'm going to get rid of them.

2ND OFFICER

Oh.So you're from a rival gang.

The officer pulled out his billy club.

EMANON

I wouldn't do that if I were you.

1ST OFFICER

Threatening a police officer.

The officer swung his billy club at Emanon. The billy club fell to the ground. The officer looked at his hand and it wasn't there. The officer yelled out.

1ST OFFICER

What happened to my hand?

EMANON

I warned you.

1ST OFFICER

You did this?

The other officer pulled out his gun and pointed it at Emanon. The gun fell to the ground. The officer yelled out.

2ND OFFICER

My hand!

Emanon handed the officer's their hand cuffs.

EMANON

Take these hand cuffs and leave.I'm going to do the job you failed to do.I'll clean up

Harlem myself.

The officers went back to their cars but instead of leaving they called for backup. Emanon started walking the streets at night. When backup came the two officers explained to them what had just happened. The rest of the officers started patrolling the area. They spotted Emanon walking. They surrounded him. A crowd was forming in the Streets.

OFFICER (shouting)

Freeze!

Emanon stopped.

OFFICER (shouting)
Put your hands up in the air.

Emanon did as he was told. Another officer came over to cuff him. He was placed inside of the squad car and they took off. The crowd started talking among themselves.

1ST MAN What was that all about?

2ND MAN

I don't know.

1ST WOMAN Did you see what he had on?

2ND WOMAN It was glowing.

1ST MAN

I had never seen ten police cars come to pick up one person before.He must be really important.

1ST WOMAN Well he didn't put up a fight.

2ND MAN
He looked as if none of this was important to him. Also,he didn't look afraid.

EXT/INT- THE POLICE STATION- NIGHT

They all arrived at the police station. The crowd gathered outside and around the station to see why it took all those squad cars to escort a prisoner.

OFFICER

Get out.

Emanon did as he was told. The crowd was in awe at the site of him. A slightly glowing silver-dressed person that looked like he was not from here.

KID

But his skin is brown. Momma? Is he a space alien?

MOTHER

I don't know honey but no one here looks like that.

Emanon was completely out of the car. The police surrounded him and ordered him to walk ahead of them. He did. The officers on the inside of the station stood alert as they entered. The other prisoners looked at Emanon as though they knew they were going to have some fun that night. He sat at an available space on the floor in a corner and kept to himself.

EMANON

(talking to himself) I know that these cops are corrupted. It would be too easy to destroy them all. I'll just give them a taste of their own medicine. They got to know who I am. I'll let them know softly.

One of the prisoners approached him.

PRISONER I need you to do me a favor.

EMANON What's the favor?

The prisoner turned his head to look at the other prisoners who were grinning. He turned back around to look at Emanon. He started grinning also. The cops were looking and also were grinning at the scene. No one was going to stop it.

PRISONER

I need you to get on your knees.

Emanon did as he was told.

PRISONER

I want you to face me.

PRISONER

Now I want you to zip down my pants.

PRISONER

Now pull it out.

EMANON

Where is it?

PRISONER

Don't get cute kid.

EMANON

I'm not.I can't find it.

The prisoner reached into his pants and felt nothing. He pulled down his pants to get a better look. He started screaming at the strange sight. His penus was not there. The rest of the prisoners came closer to get a better look. The cops rushed into the holding pen to look at the prisoner.

PRISONER

(yelling)

He bit my penus off!

The cop walked over to Emanon.

COP

Hey you. Raise your head.

Emanon did. There was no blood on his face.

COP

Open your mouth.

Emanon did. There was no blood in his mouth.

COP

Call an ambulance and get this prisoner to the hospital. Get me some towels for this prisoner in case he starts bleeding.

The cop took the screaming prisoner out of the holding pen and locked the rest of them back up. A prisoner walked up to Emanon.

PRISONER

What did you do to my friend, Freak?

PRISONER

I'm going to kick your ass. Smart ass.

The prisoner took a swing at Emanon and his arms disappeared.

PRISONER

(screaming)

Ahhh!!!

The rest of the prisoners looked at Emanon and backed as far away from him as possible. The cops came rushing in the holding pen. They saw a prisoner on the floor weeping. The other prisoners were huddled together like frightened little rabbits and Emanon was all by himself on the opposite side of the holding pen. The cops went to assist the prisoner on the floor and saw that he had no arms. They rushed him out of the holding pen and placed the rest of the prisoners in another holding pen. They left Emanon alone. The cops were afraid to approach him.

OFFICER

Call another ambulance and send for the department psychiatrist.

The lieutenant had entered the station.

LIEUTENANT

Ok. Talk to me.

OFFICER TERRY

Sir? We have an unusual situation here. There's a prisoner in the back that the other prisoners believe can make body parts disappear.

LIEUTENANT

And does he?

OFFICER TERRY

Well we did have to call two ambulances to take away one prisoner who's penus had disappeared and the other prisoner who's arms had disappeared.

LIEUTENANT

That's crazy. I'll go talk to him.

The lieutinant went to the holding pen. Emanon was still sitting on the floor in the corner.

LIEUTENANT

Has he been fingerprinted?

OFFICER TERRY

With all of the commotion caused by the prisoners I hadn't got around to it yet.

LIEUTENANT

Hey kid? Come with me. We're going to get you processed.

Emanon stood up and faced the lieutenant.

LIEUTENANT

I want you to walk in front of me.Straight ahead. We're going to get a mug shot of you first. Now stand up against that wall and face forward.

Emanon did. The cameraman stood behind the camera. When he snapped the picture the camera came apart.

An officer came in with another camera and set it up.

CAMERAMAN

Ok.I'm ready.

The cameraman started to take the picture.

CAMERAMAN

(yelling out)

Shit!

LIEUTENANT

What now?

CAMERAMAN

The camera is getting hot. It's melting, sir.

Everyone stood back to look at the camera and the tri pod. They were both melting. Soon they had melted into a puddle of liquid.

LIEUTENANT

What the hell is going on here?

They all looked at Emanon but he was looking at the floor.

LIEUTENANT

Forget the picture.Lets just get him fingerprinted. Walk over here,kid.

Emanon did.

LIEUTENANT

Now place your right hand on the ink pad and press down on the paper.

Emanon did as he was told. The officer called the lieutenant.

LIEUTENANT Ok.Lets have it.

OFFICER TERRY Sir? There's no prints.

LIEUTENANT What do you mean there's no prints?

OFFICER TERRY There's no prints, sir.

LIEUTENANT Let me see.Did you try a second time?

OFFICER TERRY Yes, sir.

Another officer came in.

OFFICER Sir? The psychiatrist is here.

LIEUTENANT Good. Bring him in.

The psychiatrist enters.

LIEUTENANT Officer Terry? Will you take the prisoner back to the holding cell?

OFFICER TERRY Yes, sir.

LIEUTENANT Doctor. Have a seat.

DOCTOR

Thank you.My name is Dr. Benjamen Godfrey.You can call me Ben.

LIEUTENANT Ok,Ben.My name is Lieutenant Conlin.Just call me Conlin.

BEN Ok Conlin.How may I help you?

CONLIN
I have this kid in the back that needs an examination.I want to know where his head is.

BEN Where is this young man?

CONLIN I'll take you to him.

They arrived at the holding pen.

CONLIN Hey kid? I have a doctor here to see you.

EMANON He can come in.I don't mind.

CONLIN
Ok Ben.The prisoner is all yours.Yell if you need something.

Hello doctor. How can I help you?

BEN

Hello Emanon.I just want to talk to you for a while. To get to know you better. Do you mind if I sit here?

EMANON

I don't mind. What would you like to talk about?

BEN

Well. Did you do what they think you did to those men who were sent to the hospital?

EMANON

They had it coming to them.

BEN

How did you do it?

EMANON

The same way I'm going to correct the mistakes in this world.

BEN

Do you really think that you have such powers?

EMANON

Yes.

BEN

Will you show me an example?

EMANON

Are you hungry,doctor?

BEN

A little. What's that smell?

EMANON

Turn around.

Ben turned around and was surprised at what he saw. A table with a whole cooked turkey and dressing, ect.

BEN

How did you do that and what else can you do?

EMANON

Do you like Hawaii?

BEN

Yes.

INT/EXT- HAWAII- DAY

EMANON

Close your eyes.

Ben closed his eyes.

EMANON

Now open them.

Ben opened his eyes and was shocked at what he was seeing. They were on the beach of Hawaii.Surrounded by people,the ocean.Clear and blue.

BEN

This is impossible. It can't be.

EMANON

Do you want to go back? Why not take back some proof.

BEN

What kind of proof?

EMANON

How about a newspaper and a hula dancer?

BEN

I don't know what to say.

EXT/INT- THE POLICE STATION- NIGHT

The next minute they were back inside of the holding pen.

BEN

This must all be some kind of an Illusion.

Suddenly a scream occurred. All of the officers came running towards the holding pen with their guns out. What they saw was a half-naked woman wearing a hula skirt. Bent down in the far corner. Conlin helped the crying woman to her feet. They all left the holding pen except Emanon. They went into Conlin's office. Ben asked for a glass of water. Conlin poured him a glass from a pitcher that was on his desk. Conlin waited for the doctor to pull himself together. He offered the girl a glass of water. She took it.

CONLIN

Ok doctor. What happened in there?

BEN

All I can say is...if that kid in there ever wants to leave, there is nothing you can do to stop him.

CONLIN

What do you mean?

BEN

I mean he's not human. No human on earth can do what he is capable of doing. My question is why is he letting himself be placed in a holding pen? CONLIN

Where did the girl come from?

BEN

Hawaii.

CONLIN

Where?

BEN

Hawaii.The kid transported us both to Hawaii for five minutes. We picked up a newspaper and the girl.Then he transported us back here. Take a look at the newspaper.

Conlin took a look at the paper.

CONLIN

I'll be damn.

Just then Emanon walked through the front door of the police station.

EMANON

I'm leaving now. I just can't stay here any longer watching everyone doing nothing so I'll just leave.

The police drew their guns and Emanon made their guns disappear. The police were shocked at what had just happened.

EMANON

I guess I'm going to have to clean up Harlem my way.

INT/EXT- OUTSIDE OF THE POLICE STATION- NIGHT

Outside, someone had yelled out.

MAN (yelling)
Hey look! It's that kid again and he's alone.

The crowd back away as Emanon walked passed them. They turned around to see all of the police officers standing around looking confused.

INT-HOSPITAL-DAY

At the hospital the news media was crowding the two teenager's room. The hospital was in complete disorder. Talk was about a flesh eating disease around Harlem. The doctors agreed that there was some kind of invisible wall that was keeping the blood from running out of the teenager's arms. They could not even pierce the opening. Suddenly there were a rush of policemen along with paramedics that had entered the ER with two prisoners. One was complaining that his penis had disappeared and the other was complaining that his arms had disappeared also. The doctors had agreed that the symptoms were all the same . By now the doctors felt that this was going to be an epidemic.

INT- POLICE STATION- DAY

The mayor had arrived at the police station. He heard what was happening there. He wanted to meet with the chief of police. The chief met the mayor at the door.

CHIEF

Mr. Mayor. How are you? MAYOR

Lets cut to the chase, Chief. I'm here to find out what is happening. Give me some answers and I mean now.

CHIEF

There is a teenager that have some kind of a special gift.

MAYOR

What kind of gift?

CHIEF

The kind that can make things disappear by thought which makes him the most dangerous man on the planet.

MAYOR

Then what are you going to do about it?

CHIEF

Well. At the moment. There is nothing we can do.

MAYOR

What is this kid's name?

CHIEF

He said his name is Emanon.

MAYOR

Is there a record on him?

CHIEF

He will not let us take his picture or his fingerprints. We can't fight against that kind of power. There is no telling how powerful this kid is.

MAYOR

What does he want?

CHIEF

The Black Dragon Gang.He also said something about cleaning up Harlem by eliminating all of the gangs. He said that he is going to do what we can't.

MAYOR

Well. What are you going to do?

CHIEF

I'm going to have a meeting with my men and tell them to stay out of his way.I'm going to hold a press conference and tell the people the truth so we can avoid a panic.

EXT- OUTSIDE THE MAYOR'S OFFICE- DAY

The news reporters had gathered in front of the mayors office to listen to what the Chief of Police had to say.

CHIEF

People of Harlem. As you can see.Strange things have been happening around town that we all know of. A lot of unexplainable things have been happening all around this planet. For instance crop circles. UFO's.The Loch Ness Monster, ect. Well. This is another one of those things. There is a kid that has acquired some powerful form of ESP.He has the power to make anything disappear by thought. He said that he just wants to clean up Harlem by getting rid of all the gangs. He does not strike me as a crazy person. He really wants to do this. So don't be afraid.He could be just what we are looking for.

The people started mumbling.

PERSON IN CROWD What if he turns bad himself?

CHIEF

Then God help us.

By now it was all on tv.Gang members were afraid to go outside. Gangs were afraid to sell drugs out on the street because they might run into Emanon. Emanon roamed the streets at night. Every now and then a thug thinks that he can be braver than anyone else.

Emanon was walking down the street when he came upon two drug dealers.

1ST DEALER

Hey dude? I have crack for sale. Three dime bags for twenty dollars.

EMANON

Sure.

1ST DEALER How many do you want?

EMANON How many do you have?

1ST DEALER I have ten bags.

EMANON I'll take them all.

1ST DEALER Well alright.

When he took out the packages they disappeared right in front of them. The drug dealers started crying like babies.

2ND DEALER He's the one everyone is talking about.

1ST DEALER That's right. He is the one.

2ND DEALER Please don't hurt us.

EMANON I won't if you tell me where the Black Dragons meet.

The drug dealers told Emanon everything he wanted to know.

EMANON
I want you all to get out of Harlem and tell your friends that the next time I see any gang members they will not have any legs to walk on.

INT- THE BLACK DRAGON'S HIDEOUT- NIGHT

Inside of an abandoned warehouse the Black Dragon gang started forming.

1ST MEMBER

Have you been watching tv about some strange dude in town?

2ND MEMBER

Yeah. Word is that he has some strange power. Something like ESP or something like that.

1ST MEMBER

The dude is a freak. Word is that he is out to get us.

2ND MEMBER

Let him come.Don't believe what you see on tv.It's all a joke anyway.You've been reading too much science fiction. If I run across the dude i'm going to blow his fucking brains out.

3RD MEMBER

Lets cut off his head and hang it on top of the bus stop.

4TH MEMBER

Lets all go out on the streets and look for this dude and when we find him bring him back here and tear him apart on video. That will show everyone how powerful we are.

Mandrid called the meeting to order.

MANDRID

As you all know. Word is that there is some kid out there looking for us. Well we're not hard to find.Lets go and make it easy for him.I have an idea. We'll all hit the streets tonight. We'll walk in groups of threes. A fourth dragon will also be behind somewhere but able to see the other three.I want each group to carry a two-way radio. The fourth Dragon will have his own radio. The fourth Dragon will also have his own AK-47 with him. If a group is ever approached by anyone who claims to be this Emanon or who ever he is. Press down on the button that is located on the two-way radio and the radio that is being carried by the fourth Dragon will beep. That's when the fourth Dragon will close in. Meanwhile you keep talking to this freak until you see the fourth Dragon closing in. When you see the fourth Dragon getting near you ask the freak if it's ok if you can get on your knees and pray. Who can say no to that? When he says yes then you go up against the wall of the nearest building and get on your knees facing the wall. When the fourth Dragon is close enough to get off a clear shot and he feels that the rest of you are out of harms way, then he'll empty the AK-47 on him. Then we'll drag his body back to our headquarters. We'll place each part of his body on the steps of City Hall with a message from the Black Dragons.

Everyone started yelling and pumping themselves up.

MANDRID

We have two Dragons in the hospital because of this freak. I want his ass tonight so lets start forming groups now and we'll hit the streets at ten o' clock tonight. Who are we?

Everyone started yelling.

THE GANG (yelling) Black Dragon. Black Dragon. Black Dragon.

MANDRID This meeting is over.

EXT- HARLEM STREET- NIGHT

Emanon was sitting down at his secret hiding place in the woods. He read about all of the problems in America by reading a newspaper. He discovered that he can read a lot faster and understand a little better each time. He decided to walk the streets. He walked the dark streets and through abandoned buildings. Emanon heard someone crying. Two guys were holding down a girl. One guy was unbuckling his pants.

EMANON

Stop!

The thugs looked his way.

1ST THUG

Who are you?

EMANON

My name is Emanon.Let her go.

One of the guys reached into his pocket and fell down to the ground because he had nothing from the waist down. It was gone. All that was left was half of him from the stomach up. He was waving his arms, screaming and rolling around on the ground. The other guy started begging.

EMANON

What do you want me to do to him?

GIRL

I just don't want him to do what he was going to do to me to someone else.

2nd THUG

(begging)

Please, let me go and I'll never do this again.

EMANON

Ok,go.

The second guy ran and then fell to the ground because he also didn't have anything from the waist down.

EMANON

He won't be coming after anyone else anymore.

GIRL

Harlem needs someone like you.

As Emanon left into the dark he heard the girl yell out.

GIRL

(yelling)

I love you, Emanon.

Emanon looked back and kept walking. As he walked further into the night he heard an argument going on. He walked closer to the sound. Some man was getting robbed. He stepped into the light.

EMANON

That's what I'm talking about. People can't even walk the streets anymore without being approached by thugs like you. The three of you against one of him

1ST THUG

Who are you?

EMANON

My name is Emanon. Sir, you can leave.

The victim ran away.

1ST THUG

Look, I know what this looks like. Please don't hurt us.

One of the thugs reached into his pocket to push the button on the two-way radio.

2ND THUG

Can we just get on our knees and pray?

EMANON

Go ahead and pray.

The three thugs walked over to the wall of the nearest building. They faced the wall and started praying. The fourth Dragon heard the beep on his radio and started closing in. He raised his AK-47 and opened fired. Emanon fell to the ground and covered his face. The other gang members took out their guns and fired also. They heard sirens coming and ran away. The police came upon the scene and saw a body on the ground. They bent down and turned it over. They looked at the face.

1ST OFFICER

Is this that kid that was at the police station?

Both officers looked closely at the face. Then suddenly Emanon's eyes opened and he stood up.

EMANON

I would love to stick around and chat with you but I have a job to do so I better get to work.

1ST OFFICER

I don't believe this.

As Emanon walked into the night he started asking himself questions.

EMANON

How can that be? They couldn't possibly have missed me with all them bullets. Not at that close range.Am I bulletproof? I must study this some more before I go out into the world.

EXT- EMANON'S HIDEOUT- DAY

Emanon went back to his hideout to do some experimenting on himself. He sat down and took a nail and tried to ram it through his hand.

EMANON

That won't work.

He took an empty bottle and smashed it on his head.

EMANON I didn't feel a thing.

He decided to climb a tree and jump off.

EMANON

I landed on my feet but I didn't feel any pain in my legs. I think i'll climb about fourty feet higher and jump.

He climbed higher to about fourty feet and jumped.

EMANON

Again I landed on my feet and didn't feel a thing. I know. That building over there has to be at lease six hundred feet tall.I'll jump off of it.

Emanon climbed to the top of the building and jumped off.

EMANON

No discomfort at all. This can't be happening. One thing I did noticed. Each time that I was in danger my collar started tingling. I wonder if the collar is what's protecting me.

EXT/INT- THE BLACK DRAGON'S HIDEOUT- NIGHT

Emanon went back out into the night. He walked behind some abandoned buildings. He followed the sounds he heard. As he got closer he noticed some guys gathering inside of an abandoned building. He peeked through a window. There was a meeting going on.

EMANON

Those are the Black Dragons. All of them are here.

Emanon moved closer towards the back of the crowd. He stayed behind the wall.

EMANON I think I'll have a little fun.

Mandrid was speaking.

MANDRID

We got rid of that punk kid for good. We would have brought his body here if it wasn't for the cops coming onto the scene.

The Dragons started yelling. I focused on one of the gang members. The member fell to the floor. The rest started looking at him in shock. Mandrid fell to the floor also. One by one the gang members fell until all of them were squirming on the floor crying and begging. I walked through them. They were reaching up. Trying to grab my legs as I walked by. When they did their arms would fall off.

EMANON

This is how you will live for the rest of your natural lives for the deaths of my mother and father.Oh,one more thing I want to say.Revenge is so sweet. I'll send over an ambulance.

EXT- THE NEWS- DAY

The next morning it was all over the news. The tv showed ambulances taking a bunch of bodies and loading them into the van. The bodies were all small like kids but they were not kids at all. They were grown up teenagers. They looked dead because they were not moving. That's because they were just heads and torsos. The reporter said that they were the Black Dragon Gang. The most notorious gang in Harlem.

POLICE OFFICER

The chief did say Emanon was going to clean up Harlem. I guess he did.

The people of Harlem felt relieved. They can now walk the streets anytime. Day or night. Gangs started to turn their lives around. No one wanted to spend the rest of their lives like the Black Dragon Gang. Emanon saw his face on tv.

EMANON (panicking)
Oh no! Grandma! I should have known. With all the picture phones around. I better get to my grandmother's house.

Emanon ran and ran. Then he stopped. He was surprised at what he saw.

EXT- NEOMI'S HOUSE- DAY

Emanon approached the block that his grandmother lived on. There were crowds of people. Lights flashing. There were fire trucks. There were large clouds of black smoke. He started running down the block.

MAN IN STREET (shouting) Hey,it's that kid on tv.

The man ran away. The people turned and looked in Emanon's direction. They started screaming and running in all directions. Emanon kept on running towards the smoke. The smoke was coming from his grandmother's house. He ran through the crowd and saw the paramedics carrying a body on a stretcher.

EMANON (yelling)

Grandma!

The body was still smoking. The house was still on fire. He stared at the house and the fire vanished. He turned to the firemen.

EMANON
What happened?
FIREMAN
It looks like arson.She never even had a chance.

Detective Dan and Detective Janet was on the scene. Emanon walked up to them.

EMANON How could this have happened?

The detectives were nervous. They knew how dangerous Emanon was. They just wanted to keep him calm.

DETECTIVE DAN

Witnesses say that they saw three guys run off into those abandoned buildings.

EXT/INT- THE ABANDONED BUILDINGS- DAY

Emanon became angrier by the minute. He took off running towards the abandoned buildings. He heard sounds coming from the buildings. He started making walls disappear. The buildings started collapsing on itself. Roofs started disappearing. One by one parts of buildings were disappearing while the other parts collapsed. Suddenly he heard some screaming and then begging.

EMANON Come on out before I cave in everything around you.

The thugs came running out. Scared to death. As they came running out they fell because their bottom halves had disappeared. Also their arms had disappeared.

EMANON

Why?

1ST THUG

We were just following orders.

EMANON

I'm going to let you live in this condition as a reminder of what you did to my grandmother.

2ND THUG

Please no! Not like this!Kill us!

EMANON

I know you're not afraid to die.That's why I'm letting you survive in a living hell.I'll send an ambulance to pick you up.

EXT- HARLEM- DAY

As Emanon left he heard the swearing. The cussing. The pleading. The threatening and then the crying. He walked through the sites of the abandoned buildings. He made them all disappear. He made drug houses vanish. He made parking lots with abandoned cars on them vanish. He made buildings that were not well kept vanish. He made police cars vanish. He went over to City Hall and made it vanish. He made the police stations vanish. He made whole neighborhoods in rich areas vanish. He made all of the houses in neighborhoods where parents who could not control their kids vanish. He made all of the cars disappear on the streets while people were still driving. He made businesses vanish.

EMANON

My family died in this city where people turned away and looked in another direction instead of looking for a solution to the problem.

Emanon made traffic lights vanish. The people were standing out in the middle of the street. Everyone were afraid. The law was helpless. The police started shooting. One by one their guns disappeared. The police had used their heaviest firepower but nothing could hurt Emanon. The force field that was protecting him was something that they had never considered. Emanon took one of the police cars and started driving it. He took the highway south.

EXT- HIGHWAY- DAY

Emanon noticed several police cars following him. He spotted a helicopter up in the sky. He also noticed a roadblock up ahead. As Emanon drove nearer they started shooting at him with all of their firepower. They used flame throwers and granades. As he drove closer his car exploded and burst into flames. Emanon got out of the car with flames all around him.He wasn't hurt. He turned around to face all of them. He made their firepower disappear.He made the blades of the helicopter disappear and the helicopter went down and exploded. One cop had a grenade in his hand and got ready to throw it.His arm disappeared.The granade fell to the ground.It exploded and the cop disappeared in the explosion.

Emanon made all of their weapons disappear. He also made their clothes disappear just for fun. Emanon took another police car and drove off. As he was driving he came upon more road blocks. He made everthing in front of him disappear.

EMANON To hell with them all.

EXT/INT- THE MILITARY BASE- DAY

Emanon drove to the nearest military base. The MPs pointed their guns at him. When they started shooting at him he made them all disappear. Soldiers came at him from everywhere with their tanks and guns. He made them all disappear. Planes dropped bombs on top of him and he made them disappear.

Everything around him was blowing up but his force field was protecting him from all harm. Everything around him was disappearing. Finally the shooting had stopped. He walked into a building and was met by a general. The general had a number of soldiers around him.

GENERAL What do you want?

EMANON I want everything to stop.

GENERAL What do you mean?

EMANON You'll find out. Show me your computers.

GENERAL Shoot that punk.

They all started shooting and Emanon made their arms disappear. All except the general's.

EMANON

Show me where your computers are.

The general looked at the floor, shocked at the scene of his armless men.

GENERAL

Ok.I'll show you.

They walked down the hall. The general opened the door to a large room with large monitor screens on the walls. The room was full of computers with technicians sitting in front of them.

EMANON

Tell them to all move aside.

GENERAL

Everyone.Get up from those computers and go out into the hallway.

They did as they were told. Emanon sat down in front of one of the computers and started typing. Information started popping up.

EMANON

For some reason i'm able to understand this information.

He started typing faster.

EMANON

How am I able to do this?

The screen started changing at an amazing speed. Emanon was able to keep up and understand everything before the screen changed.

GENERAL

That's impossible. How can you do that?

EMANON

I don't know.

The screen was now at a blur. This went on for an hour. Then suddenly everything stopped. Emanon got up and walked over to the general.

EMANON

I now understand everything, General.

GENERAL

What do you understand?

EMANON

I understand that you are all liars and cheats. You lie to the people. You lie to each other. You lie to the governments of other countries. Your lies contributed to the deaths of my family. Now I understand everything and I know what I have to do. I'm leaving General.

As Emanon left he turned around.

EMANON

God help you. God help you all

INT- THE WHITE HOUSE- DAY

Word had reached the White House about Harlem, New York. The CIA came back with their investigative report. They gave it to the general. The general went to the Oval Office. An agent opened the door.

GENERAL

I need to see the president. It's very important.

PRESIDENT

Let the general in.

The general walked in.

GENERAL

Mr.President? We have a problem.

PRESIDENT

Well? Speak up.

The general gave the report to the president. The president read it.

PRESIDENT

This is impossible. How can an entire city just vanish?

GENERAL

I have no explanation for it myself, sir.

PRESIDENT

Is he one of ours?

GENERAL

I don't understand, sir.

PRESIDENT

Is he human?

GENERAL

I believe so,sir.The C.I.A. have been asking around and found out that he grew up in Harlem. His entire family was killed by gangs and he is pissed off.

PRESIDENT

How did he come in contact with those abilities?

GENERAL

No one knows, sir. We also know that none of our fire power will affect him.

PRESIDENT

I'm going to call a meeting at the Pentagon. You have your men keep an eye on this Emanon person and do not engage contact until we figure out some kind of action.

The general left. The president picked up his phone.

PRESIDENT

Find the vise president and tell him we have to meet. Have him call me a.s.a.p.

The next morning the vice president met with the president. They both sat down to talk about the situation with Harlem.

PRESIDENT

Look, Jim. We have a serious problem at hand.

VICE PRESIDENT I know we do, Mr President.

PRESIDENT

I want to call a meeting at the Pentagon so we can best decide what is good for this country.

VICE PRESIDENT I hope that whatever we decide, it will be the right decision.

PRESIDENT What do you mean, Jim?

VICE PRESIDENT

I mean,sir.We do not know the extent of his powers yet. If we go to the extreme,sir,no telling what he might be capable of doing and what if the extreme doesn't work,sir?

PRESIDENT

Then God help us. When the meeting is arranged make sure that the pope is sitting in on it too. I want the meeting to be held at ten o'clock tomorrow, because of the seriousness of this whole matter. Take Air Force One to the Vatican and convince the pope that he must come and that his ride awaits him.

VICE PRESIDENT I'll see you at the meeting tomorrow, Mr. President.

INT- THE PENTAGON- DAY

The next day at the Pentagon all of the five star generals. The pope. Even some of the leaders of other countries were there. There were ambassadors, Kings, and Queens.

ANNOUNCER

Ladies and gentlemen. The President of the United States.

The president enters. Everyone stood up and clapped.

PRESIDENT

Thank you for the warm welcome. The reason why I have called this meeting is to tell you all that we are facing a major problem. This problem not only can affect this country but could possibly affect the entire planet. Each representative of their country will have to put their input in on how to deal with this situation.

All of the members of the Pentagon started facing each other and mumbling to themselves.

PRESIDENT

Let me bring you all up to date.Harlem,New York,is no longer there.

Everyone started talking to each other.Low.Like mumbling.

PRESIDENT OF MOSCOW Was it nuclear?

PRESIDENT

No.But it could be far worse. Let me explain. As you all know. We have been working side by side with species from other worlds with the promise of shared technologies that can improve the quality of life as we know it if we promise to let them roam this great planet of ours and mingle with the people of this world. They promised not to get involved with our way of running our planet. What we have here is a human with abilities so dangerous that we will have to go to Area 51 where our special headquarters is located, and try to communicate with the Arians and see if they know anything about this.

GENERAL

Mr.President

PRESIDENT Yes General.

GENERAL

What if they are responsible for all of this? We can't fight them. Not with our weapons.

The President of Italy stood up.

PRESIDENT
The floor recognizes the President of Italy.

THE PRESIDENT OF ITALY Mr. President. What if they are not responsible. Wouldn't they think that we are accusing them of breaking a promise?

President of Africa stood up.

PRESIDENT

The floor recognizes the President of Africa.

AFRICA PRESIDENT

What if we contact them and by telling them of this problem we are having they decide that they have been excluded from all the benefits they've enjoyed here on this planet. You don't want an intergalactic war right here on earth,do you?

PRESIDENT

No,but I need some answers, now.

Another general stood up.

GENERAL

Lets solve our own problems. Lets put a special report out on television saying that we would like to meet with him in the desert of Arizona. Remember.He's only a teenager.

PRESIDENT

What are we going to do with him in the desert?

GENERAL

First we'll build another hanger that will be sitting on top of a fifty-megaton bomb. We will have all the things that age group likes. We'll build an amusement park just for him. We will declare him a hero for destroying that gang in Harlem. We will tell him that the president himself will hand him an award.We'll have a thirty foot high tv screen where the president will make his apologies to this Emanon kid for not being there in person. The big screen will turn on by remote control. We'll have the president make his welcome speech. We'll start the countdown and set off the bomb.

PRESIDENT

That's the best idea yet, General.I want you to be in charge of the building of the amusement park.

GENERAL

Yes, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT

Ok then.Lets get started and thank you all for showing up at this short notice.

Everyone stood up and left. Military trucks left for Arizona. Three weeks later the amusement park was finished.

PRESIDENT

My staff and I are going to pull out now in Air Force One. I'll be expecting you in one in a half hours from now.

GENERAL

Yes Mr President

EXT- THE PLANE- DAY

Emanon had recieved the message on tv and he arrived at the general's office on the military base. Everything was explained to him about recieving an award from the President. An agent was assigned to him and was supposed to escort him to the amusement park. He was taken aboard Air Force One.

EXT - AIR FORCE ONE - DAY

The plane was flying over Arizona.

EMANON

Look at all the sand. I had never seen so much sand in all my life. The sand is acting like water with all thed ripples in it.

PILOT

Fasten your seat belts. We're landing in fifteen minutes.

Agent Crawford came and sat next to Emanon.

AGENT

Emanon, what do you see?

EMANON

(surprised)

Wow,look at all the rides. The tents. The Ferris wheel.

AGENT

It's all for you, Emanon.

EMANON

For me? No one has ever done anything like this for me before.

AGENT

You know Emanon? Your life is going to change after tonight. You being a hero and all.

EMANON

The amusement park is getting bigger.Look,I can see a giant tv screen too. Look,there's a long street.

AGENT

No,Emanon.That's an airstrip. That's where we're going to land.

The airstrip started getting closer. Finally the plane made a perfect landing. The plane coasted over to it's designated parking area and finally came to a complete stop. The door to the plane opened.

EXT - THE DESERT - DAY

The agent escorted Emanon out of the plane. The general was waiting. The general saluted him. Emanon was nervous because he never had a general salute him before.

GENERAL

I do believe that you are the hero that we are waiting for.

EMANON

I guess so.

GENERAL

Well then, son. Let me show you what we have planned for you. First, I'm going to take you to that tent over there and feed you. You are hungry are you?

EMANON

I think so. With all the excitement I had never thought about food.

GENERAL

Let's go get something to eat.

EMANON

The general and Emanon walked over to the tent to grab a hot dog and a Coke.

GENERAL

Get ready for the time of your life.

EMANON

I can't wait, sir.

GENERAL

Well ok.Follow me.

EXT- THE AMUSEMENT PARK- DAY

Emanon and the general walked through two large wooden doors. When they were inside Emanon thought that he was in The Wizard Of Oz. The music was playing. Clowns were dancing. A tall man was walking on stilts. Crowds of people were everywhere. Emanon and the general walked over to a booth to talk to a female with a short skirt and a low cut blouse on. There was another female next to her wearing a holter top, short pants, and fishnet stockings.

GENERAL

I want you to show this young man a good time and give him anything he wants. Plus extras,Ok?

THE GIRLS

(In Unison)

Whatever you say, General.

SANDY

Well, Emanon. My name is Sandy.

PAULA

And my name is Paula and you belong to us,honey.

EMANON

But general. What about the President?

GENERAL

Look,son.You see that thirty foot screen over there?

EMANON

Yes,sir.

GENERAL

When the president is ready to see you that screen will come on. There are cameras all over the park. Everyone will be watching you. Even the President of the United States. Now go with those girls, and have a good time.

EMANON

Ok, General.

Emanon left with the girls. The general turned around and walked away. He was met by the FBI agent.

GENERAL

Lets go get on the plane and get the hell out of here.

They both jumped into the car and drove towards the plane. They entered the plane and was greeted by the President's staff.

PRESIDENT

Pilot, you can take off.

The President had a camera set up in his compartment on the plane. A remote control was set up to operate the thirty foot screen at 35,000 feet. The general met with the President.

GENERAL

Sir,the kid had been dropped off.

PRESIDENT

How's his mood?

GENERAL

He's all caught up with the bright lights and pretty girls, sir.He's not wise to anything.

PRESIDENT

Good, because in twenty minutes, I want the countdown to start.

EXT- THE AMUSEMENT PARK- DAY

Back at the amusement park Emanon was being shown a good time by the girls. The girls took him on the roller coaster, the bumper cars, and the Ferris Wheel. They stopped to see the parade that was going by.

SANDY

Is there something wrong, Emanon?

EMANON

I don't know.It's my collar. It's tingling.

PAULA

Why don't you take it off?

EMANON

I can't take it off.

Just then the thirty foot screen came on.

ANNOUNCER

Ladies and gentlemen. The President of the United States.

Everyone started clapping their hands.

PRESIDENT

My fellow Americans. We are gathered here to give tribute to our newest American hero. His name is Emanon. This whole party is in honor of his bravery.

As the President spoke the countdown began. The President continued speaking.

EXT - BOMB - DAY

Emanon was eating a hot dog when everything turned white. His collar was tingling stronger. He was flying upward. The color of fire was everywhere. He was spinning and turning in every direction. The light started fading and the stars started shining through. The stars started shining brighter. Then millions of stars came into view. He was floating and right below him was a huge cloud. A mushroom cloud. He started looking around. He realized that he was in space. He was floating away from the mushroom cloud.

EXT- SPACE- NIGHT

EMANON

I feel so sleepy. My collar is not tingling as much now.I do have this feeling of peace. I'll just close my eyes.

Emanon was listening to a voice inside of his head.

destiny. You will soon outgrow your planet when you realize your mind's full capabilities. Your mind is now 200,000 years more advanced. You can now change energy into matter. You can create. You can destroy. But you also have a heart. Your new found wisdom will prevail. Now awake Emanon. Your planet's destiny is in your hands.

Emanon had awakened around four hours later. He was still seeing the stars.

EMANON

What a dream that was. Could what I had dreamed be true? What happened? One minute I was eating a hot dog. The next i'm floating above the planet. How am I able to breathe up here? My collar is tingling a little.I wonder if my collar had anything to do with me being up here and with me being able to breathe in space? There is no other explanation for this and what's with the mushroom cloud? Were we under attack? This is all so strange.

Emanon looked down at the ocean.

EMANON

I've never scene so much water in my whole life. I feel as though I'm flying. What's that up ahead? It's a space station. I'm floating towards it. I've never seen one close up before. I can see windows but I can't see any people in there. I don't want to knock on the windows and scare anyone so I'll just float away from it.

Emanon looked down at the planet to see if there were any more mushroom clouds around. He didn't see any.

EMANON

Maybe it was just that one. But why the amusement park where I was at. Something doesn't feel right. Was all this a trick to get rid of me? They were willing to kill all of those people just as long as I was dead. I'm going to have to think on this for a while. In the meantime, I better not trust anyone. I'll just observe.

EXT- THE MIDDLE EAST- DAY

EMANON

Hey, where did all of the water go? Now there's nothing but sand down there. My collar is tingling more now.I feel as though I'm falling, because the clouds are getting closer.It doesn't feel like I'm falling fast though.It feels like I'm floating downward. Now i'm inside of the clouds. I can't see anything. It's white everywhere. I can't see my hands in front of my face.In fact, I can't see my body. I have no sense of direction. Just a feeling of floating downward. Seems like I'm forever floating.

The clouds started clearing. Emanon was able to see his hands. His body was showing up clearer.

EMANON I'm beginning to see land below me.It looks like a desert.

As Emanon floated closer he was able to see people with turbans on their heads riding on horses. He floated over them. He saw villages up ahead. The people were running everywhere. He saw tanks, soldiers, explosions, all over the place. It looked like a war zone. He kept on floating over everything. Jeeps with armed men were shooting at the people. The people were running and hiding from the soldiers. He can see soldiers kicking in the doors of the villager's homes and shooting. He can hear the women screaming as they were being dragged away from their homes and surrounded by soldiers.

EMANON

I'm floating over all of this and out towards the desert again. I can see more men with turbans on riding on horseback.

He floated over them towards some trees. About a mile up ahead.

EMANON

I'm floating closer to the ground.Closer.Touchdown. Well,here I am again.Back in the desert. Sand all around me. What's that up ahead?Looks like some riders coming in my direction. My collar is tingling more.Now I know why.It's warning me of danger. Also, it's protecting me from danger.It's making it possible for me to hear things from great distances. I for some reason am able to understand all forms of communication.I can feel it.I feel as though I can speak any language.From animal to human. They're getting closer. They can see me now. They're riding faster. I won't say anything to them. I'll just do as they ask and see where it leads. Here they come.

AHMED My name is Ahmed. We are against all invaders of our country. What are you doing here out in the desert, and where did you come from?

Emanon didn't say anything.

AHMED

What is the matter with you? You can't talk?

Emanon still said nothing. They started talking among themselves.

1ST MAN

Look at how he's dressed.

2ND MAN

I think he's a spy.

AHMED

Where's your horse?

Emanon didn't talk.

AHMED

You're coming with us.

One of them reached down grabbed Emanon by his arm and lifted him onto his horse. Then they rode away.

EXT- THE VILLAGE- DAY

They rode in the direction of a village. When they arrived everyone got off of their horses. They took Emanon by his arms and tied him to a tree.

AHMED

You are going to tell me everything I need to know.

Ahmed gave out an order.

AHMED

Tear off his shirt.I'm going to whip your flesh raw.

One of the men took out a long knife and started cutting on Emanon's top clothing. His knife couldn't cut it.

1ST MAN

Ahmed?Look.His top garment won't cut.

AHMED

What do you mean it won't cut? Your knife is just dull. Mine can chop a tree branch in half.I'll do it.

Ahmed took out his knife and started cutting on Emanon's top.It didn't work.

AHMED

This is imposible. You're not getting off that easy. I'll whip you through your clothes.

Ahmed took his long black whip off of his horse and walked ten feet away from Emanon. He whipped him ten times and then he stopped. He walked over to him.

AHMED

Do you have anything to tell me?

Emanon just grinned at him.

AHMED

You cocky fool. Twenty lashes will wipe that stupid smile off of your face cause you'll be dead.

Twenty lashes later Ahmed walked over to Emanon. Emanon kept his head down.

AHMED

Untie him.He's dead.

As they untied him Emanon slumped to the ground. They all huddled together and started talking among themselves.

1ST MAN What kind of soldier's uniform is he wearing?

2ND MAN

Do you think that he is one of them American special forces?

AHMED

No.He looks too young.

3RD MAN

What was so important that he would die before he would talk?

1ST MAN

Look!

They all turned around. Emanon was standing up and facing them. They pointed their guns at him.

AHMED

Grab him.

They grabbed him.

AHMED

Look.I don't know how you survived that lashing when others would've died but whatever secret you are withholding you are about to lose your head over it.

Ahmed took out his sword.

AHMED

Who are you and where did you come from?

Emanon just looked at him and grinned.

AHMED

You insolent fool.

Ahmed swung his sword at Emanon's neck. It hit the force field that was protecting him. The sword repelled backwards and hit Ahmed in the face. Cutting him badly. Blood was gushing down his face. Ahmed fell to the ground yelling.

AHMED

Shoot him.

They shot at Emanon and the bulletts repelled back at them. Hitting them. They all fell to the ground moaning. They looked up at Emanon.

AHMED

Who are you?

Emanon looked at them all.

EMANON

I'm Emanon.

Emanon walked through the men on the ground moaning.

EMANON

I don't have anything against you people. Why did you want to kill me?

AHMED

There are soldiers and spies from other countries that want to take over our country to control our oil supply. These soldiers are killing my people. You could be one of the spies.

EMANON

I am not.

AHMED

The soldiers burn our homes and kill decent people, and rape our women. Soldiers from all of the super powers of the world had joined in together to do these terrible acts for whatever reason justify their own cause. We have to protect ourselves and Fight against our enemies.

EMANON

I have an idea but first let me do something for you.

A few seconds later their wounds started healing. Ahmed's face started clearing up. The bullets started pertruding from the men's bodies and dropping to the ground. Their bullet wounds started closing up. All of them bowed down to Emanon. They were shocked after seeing what was done to them.

EMANON

Get up.

AHMED

Are you a savior sent by Allah?

EMANON

No.

AHMED

We want to be your followers. Lead us.

EMANON

First will you take me to your village?

The Indians got up off of their knees and took Emanon into their village. They showed him their sick and their dying. He whispered into their ears. Then suddenly, slowly the sick and dying started rising to their feet. Every one of them dropped to their knees and started praying to him. Calling him the Son of Allah.

EMANON

I'm not Allah's son.My name is Emanon.

AHMED

Yes, you're Emanon.Son of Allah.

Emanon knew that he was not going to change their minds.

EMANON

Forget it.

Ahmed and his men took Emanon on a tour of their village. More and more villagers followed Ahmed's soldiers who were escorting Emanon.

AHMED

You see hear, Emanon. We have no water and no grass like the rest of some countries. All we do have is desert. Miles and Miles of it.

EMANON

I want everyone to step back.

Emanon said a few words to himself. A few seconds later a sound of rumbling was heard. The desert started dropping for miles around. The Villagers walked over to the edge of the desert to see the giant hole in it's place.

EMANON

Look towards the sky.

They all did. The sky was sparkling like fireworks. Then it turned into fire with lightning shooting across it. Then the fire went out. A dark cloud was forming with lightning everywhere. The cloud was pured black. Then came the water. Not like rain water, but like water was being poured from a barrel. The hole in the ground was quickly filling up. The cloud was only over what used to be a desert. Soon the hole was filled with water and the cloud just went away. The sun came out. There was no longer a desert but a lake in it's place.

EMANON

Will you hand me twenty rocks?

An Indian woman did.Emanon placed the rocks closed to his lips and said a few words. He threw the rocks about thirty feet away.

EMANON

Watch.

Everyone looked in the direction he threw the rocks. The rocks that were laying on the ground began to sink. The ground started shaking. The holes that the rocks had made began to get bigger. Then everyone heard the strangest sounds. The holes that the rocks had made were at least three feet wide. The sounds became louder. Suddenly, goats, and sheep had jumped out of the holes. Over fifteen goats and fifteen sheep all together.

EMANON

Look over there.

Everyone looked in the direction he was pointing to. The ground started vibrating. Then corn stalks shot out of the ground complete with corn on them. In another direction, miles and miles of grass had formed. The ground started shaking some more and then it opened up. A mooing sound was heard and cows jumped out of the holes. About twenty cows had came out. The cows immediately started grazing on the grass. All of the kids started running out to play. The dogs were barking and playing with the kids. The villagers all started holding hands and began singing. They all bowed down to thank Emanon.

VILLAGERS

Thank you, Emanon. Son of Allah

EMANON

I'm not the son of Allah.Oh never mind.

Emanon had spotted some riders off in the distance. The riders had changed direction and started riding towards them. They were all dressed up in black garments. Carrying swords and their rifles were on the side of their horses.

EMANON

Ahmed, why don't we stop and let them make the first move.

The riders had cought up to them. They noticed that Emanon was wearing a different kind of garment.

LEADER

Who are you?

Ahmed had spoke up.

AHMED

He is Emanon. Son of Allah.

LEADER

He is a spy and I will take him as our prisoner.

Two riders lifted Emanon onto a horse. They rode away. Emanon had let himself be taken prisoner by a group of Indians on horseback.

EMANON (Thinking)

They look like the men I've seen on tv they call terrorist. They say that these terrorist are suicide bombers. It looks like we are getting closer to some kind of training camp.I can see hundreds of men and women. They are all dressed in black garments. Training for something important.

They rode into the camp.One of the riders kicked Emanon off of his horse. They shoved him into some kind of cave. The cave was very equipped. It had some radar equipment, generators, computers, TVs. They even had the internet. Some of them were watching CNN News. They had tied Emanon up against a concrete wall. They had a steel barrel with hot coals in it. The coals were white hot with steel rods sticking out of them. One of the men came over to Emanon.

JUDAN

Now, what is your name?

EMANON

Emanon

JUDAN

Where did you come from?

America.

JUDAN

So you are an American?

EMANON

Yes.

JUDAN

Why did you come here?

EMANON

I didn't want to come here.

Judan slapped Emanon in the face.

JUDAN

I didn't asked you that.I'm going to ask you this question one more time,and you better think before you answer.
Why did you come here.

EMANON

It's complicated.

JUDAN

The villagers think that you are the Son of Allah.Do you think that you are his son?

EMANON

No.

Judan walked over to the barrel. Then he walked over to Emanon. He brought the rod over to Emanon's face. Emanon's collar started tingling.

JUDAN

Do you have anything to say?

EMANON

No.

JUDAN

We'll see.

All of his men stood around to watch Emanon suffer. Judan put the rod up against Emanon's face. Emanon didn't feel the heat at all. The rod sizzled. Judan slid the rod down Emanon's face. Emanon didn't make a sound. Judan looked closer at Emanon's face and was surprised.

JUDAN

There's no mark.

He put the rod on Emanon's chest.

JUDAN

His clothes are not burning. This is impossible.Get me some more rods.

The men brought over some more rods.

JUDAN

Put the rods up against his body.

His men put the four hot rods up against Emanon's body. The rods sizzled and smoked. The men started talking among themselves.

MEN TALKING

This person cannot be burned.

JUDAN

Bring me my sword.

One of the men brought Judan his sword.

JUDAN

I might not be able to burn you but let's see how your skin reacts to the sting of my sword. I bet if you are missing an arm you'll began to start talking.

Judan swung the sword at Emanon's arm. The sword repelled backwards and hit Judan in the face.

EMANON

(Thinking)

He was lucky that the sharp end didn't get him like the last person.

Judan started getting angry.

JUDAN

If you don't start talking I'm going to cut off your head and stick it on a pole at the head of the camp.

Emanon said nothing.

JUDAN

Ok then.

Judan swung the sword at Emanon's neck and the sword repelled backwards. This time the sharp end of the sword caught him on the side of the face. His face started bleeding. He started yelling.

JUDAN

Pour oil on him and burn him.

His men did as they were told. They poured oil all over Emanon. Emanon's clothes was now black. So was his face. He was black all over from the oil. Judan held his face which was dripping down with blood.

JUDAN

Light him up.

One of the men took a torch and placed it up against Emanon. The oil burned. The fire was all over him. The flame had reached the top of the cave.

JUDAN

That's it. He's gone.

They left the cave and went outside. The women of the camp ran over to Judan to try and help him. He fell to the ground. When they took a look at his face, they were shocked at what they saw. The sword had sliced off half of his face. His brains was oozing out. One woman had to place a bandage around his head to hold his brains in. He fell to the ground. His men surrounded him. They were all concerned that Judan was going to die. The smoke was coming from the cave. A thick black smoke. The Indians knew that they would have to choose another leader soon. Suddenly one of the men shouted.

MAN (Shouting)

Look!

They all looked at the cave. Standing at the entrance of the cave was the person they thought they had burned. They stood up and walked backwards. What they saw was a person dressed in silver clothing and glowing. Emanon saw that their leader was on the ground shaking. Probably going into shock. He walked over to him. Bent down and whispered some words into his ear. Emanon stood up and stepped backwards. A few seconds later Judan sat up.

JUDAN What happened?

EMANON

I healed you.

Judan took off the bandages from his face and head and was normal again.

JUDAN How did you do that?

EMANON

I just can.

Everyone dropped to their knees and bowed their heads.

JUDAN You are truly the Son of Allah.

EMANON No,I'm not.Just call me Emanon.

JUDAN Emanon,my name is Judan. I wish you would accept my humble apology.

EMANON
Just explain to me. What it is you want?

JUDAN

We want to fight against America, Canada, Japan, and all the other countries that are sending their soldiers over to our country to take away what belongs to us, and trying to convert our way of living to theirs. All we have is what you see. The way we live has been this way for hundreds of years. Sure we have our problems, but we can solve our own. We don't need foreigners coming over to our land. Making up excuses to take the one thing we gave that we can use to in time, advance our people to a level that we ourselves agree upon.

EMANON

What is it that you have that everyone wants?

JUDAN

Our oil. Everyone wants our oil. Africa has diamonds, America has gold. We have oil. For some reason everyone feels that the oil is worth more than anything else. I feel that the multimillionaires are profiting from it and not sharing it with the people. The higher class are just getting richer off of our oil. There are a few leaders who want to control the entire world population if they can dominate the oil supply.

EMANON

I have an idea that will solve everyone's greed.

INT- OHIO/THE JOHNSON'S HOME - DAY

The Johnson family lives in Ohio.Mark and Margaret Johnson are sitting at their table eating breakfast.

MARGARET

Honey.It's nice outside and this is your weekend off.What are your plans?

MARK

I think I'll cut the grass today. It's getting too tall.In fact I'm going to do it right now while I'm feeling good. Ok?

MARGARET

Ok, sweetheart.

MARK

By the way.Breakfast was perfect.

Mark went out to the shed to get the lawnmower and a hatchet to cut through the branches. As he left the shed he threw the hatchet towards the center of the lawn. He started up the lawnmower. Then started cutting the grass. As he got closer to the center of the lawn where the hatchet was stuck in the grass the ground started getting mushy.

MARK

I Know it didn't rain. It hadn't rained all week.

Mark decided to stop cutting the grass.He started walking towards the hatchet.As he got closer to the hatchet the ground became more mushy.As he lifted up his foot he noticed that his boot was all black.

MARK

What is this stuff?

He pulled the hatchet out of the ground. There was a sudden rumbling under the ground. Then a roar. Like a train coming closer and closer. A burst of black thick liquid shot up into the air. About three hundred feet high.

MARK

(Screaming)

Ahhh!

Margaret came running out of the house screaming. The neighbors all came running out of their homes at the sudden sound of an earthquake. They all looked up at the strange scene that was occurring at the Johnson's place.

NEIGHBOR Mark? What happened?

MARK

I don't know. I threw a hatchet into the ground and all of a sudden this.

NEIGHBOR

You've struck oil.

MARK

Oil? There's no oil under my house.

NEIGHBOR Ok,Mark.Then how do you explain that?

MARK

That's the trouble. I can't.

You're rich, Mark.

The fire engines was heard from a distance. Mark held his wife by her waist.

MARK

Honey? The neighbors are saying that we are rich. When we bought the house the real estate agent never said that their was oil underneath it.

MARGARET

I don't think he knew.

The fire trucks arrived at the scene.

FIREMAN

Holy shit.Look at that mother. Who's the owner?

NEIGHBOR

They are.

The fireman walked over to the Johnsons.

FIREMAN

What did you do?

MARK

I threw my hatchet towards the middle of the lawn.It stuck into the ground.Black liquid was oozing onto my lawn. I pulled the hatchet out of the ground and that's when the rumbling started.Then a noise that sounded like a train was getting closer. All of a sudden black liquid burst into the air.

FIREMAN

Golly mister. This is like the Beverly Hillbillies.

More sirens were heard off in a distance. They were sirens of police cars. The fire chief had arrived. He met with his men. An explanation was given to him. There was a crowd of people out in the streets. The oil had spread all over the other homes and onto the streets. The people had to move back to keep from being sprayed by all of the oil. Some of the neighbors were getting angry because of the cleanup job that would have to be done on their houses. The police had arrived on the scene.

OFFICER

This oil can be seen from downtown.

The owners of other houses on the block were already talking about suing the Johnsons for damages done to their property.

EXT - MAGANS PROPERTY- DAY

Somewhere down the block another burst of black liquid shot up into the air. It was coming from the Magan's property. Eric Magen was working on his car and got angry at the fact that he forgot to buy the proper tool he needed for the job. He threw his wrench over onto his lawn and all of a sudden, a rumbling sound was heard, then a roar and a burst of black liquid had shot up into the air.

EXT- JACKS PROPERTY- DAY

Jack was angry that two of his neighbors had struck oil. He was beginning to put up a fence pole. He took a garden hoe and jammed it into the ground. A rumbling sound was heard. Then a roar. Then a burst of black liquid had shot up into the air. Jack started jumping around inside of the black liquid.

JACK (shouting)

I'm rich

All of the people on the block started running back to their properties and started punching holes into the ground.Oil started shooting up all over the place.The firemen's hand's were tied.

FIREMAN

Chief? These holes have to be plugged up. The force is to powerful, sir.

FIRE CHIEF

This is over our heads.

EXT- EUROPE- DAY

Somewhere in Europe a swimmer was preparing to jump off of her diving board into her swimming pool. As she jumped off of the board and into the air she looked down. As she was approaching the water, to her surprise, she saw that the pool was all black and bubbling. A sudden burst of black liquid shot up from the pool. The force of the liquid had carried her up into the air. She was thrown up against a slab of concrete a thousand feet away. That was her last swim.

EXT- AFRICA- DAY

In Africa, deep inside the Congo. A group of hunters were tracking down a lion. As they cornered the lion they began throwing their spears. One spear hit it's target. One missed and hit a tree. Another spear missed and hit the ground. The lion ran off wounded. The hunters went to collect their spears. When one of the other hunters pulled his spear out of the ground a roaring sound was heard. He looked down at the spot where the spear had landed. Black liquid was oozing out of the ground. The ground started shaking. The liquid started rising higher. A sudden loud sound blast occurred and the black liquid shot up a thousand feet into the air. The hunters heard the loud blast and felt the ground shake. They heard a scream. They saw their friend running towards them. They looked up and saw a giant black finger pointing at the sky and spitting out black liquid. At least, that's how they perceived it. They saw a black river rushing towards them.

EXT- CHINA - DAY

In China, Wing Chow and his son Lo Wing Chow were playing with their remote control airplane. As the plane flew higher it suddenly flew out of range and crashed into the ground. Where the plane had crashed a burst of liquid shot up into the air. It was oil.

EXT- MEXICO- DAY

In Mexico, kids were playing. Throwing rocks, outside of their village. When the rocks hit the ground a burst of black liquid shot up into the air.It was oil.The villagers were jumping and shouting.

VILLAGERS (Shouting) We're rich.

EXT- DETROIT- DAY

In Detroit some young black teenagers were playing football in the park. The quarterback threw the ball and missed his target. The ball hit the ground and a burst of black liquid shot up into the air. It was oil.

EXT - THE WORLD - DAY

All over the world the people were becoming rich.Oil tycoons were popping up everywhere.Oil refineries had to be built to keep up with the demand.Gas prices had dropped down to twenty five cents a gallon. The people were able to keep full tanks of gas inside of their cars all the time.Rich people had no reason to separate themselves from poor people because every poor person became rich.The economy was booming.

INT - NEWS - DAY

On tv the news reported that the country was in good standing. The stock market was soaring high. The streets were covered with so much oil clean up crews had to be hired but no one wanted the job because everyone were rich. No one wanted to do any labor work.

EXT - THE NEIGHBORHOODS- DAY

The poor people who were now rich were buying property in neighborhoods that only wanted a certain class of people. Some of the newly rich were moving into these neighborhoods out of spite.

INT-RESTAURANTS-DAY

Restaurants closed down because the people were too rich to be bus boys, waiters, cooks, and waitresses.

EXT - HOUSES - DAY

Houses that was already built were quickly bought. Soon there were no more empty houses for sale. Homes could not be built because their were no more contractors. They were already rich. The houses began to look like dumps. The sanitation department had no employees to pick up the trash in front of the people's homes so the trash accumulated.

The dogs got to the trash and the trash was all in the streets. Soon the rats came to feed on the trash. There were no more garbage men because they were all too rich to work. No more sweepers because they were too rich to work.

EXT - STORES - DAY

Grocery stores closed down because all of the staff were too rich and didn't want to work.

EXT - INSURANCE COMPANIES- DAY

Insurance companies went out of business because no one wanted to insure their homes if there were no more contractors to fix the damages.

EXT- HOSPITALS- DAY

Hospitals closed down one by one because the staff were too rich to work. The doctors had no one to help them. Patients were dying because of lack of treatment. A national emergency is declared. The president called for a state of emergency. The troops were called back from overseas. There was no more need for oil. Soldiers had new duties to perform, cleaning up the cities. Volunteers were needed but the people were too rich to volunteer. All over the world rich people were popping up. The American people finally got a break.

EXT - SHIP - NIGHT

High above the Earth's atmosphere a ship of lights with a species 200,000 years ahead of humans were monitoring Emanon's adventures.

OPA

Kiwa,this human is letting his planet destroy itself.

KIWA

I can see that Opa but we can only observe. That is the universal law.

OPA

If this planet destroys itself it will not be suitable for other species from other worlds to vacation on.

KIWA

Look Opa. This planet belongs to the human. In order for this species to grow they will have to overcome their differences. Sometimes it takes a young species to almost destroy their own planet to correct the problems that are leading them to doom. The human who is wearing the device has abilities 200,000 years ahead of his kind. He will become wiser as time goes by. Opa, the life of this planet depends solely on him and also my dear Opa.He now has the power to destroy his own planet if he chooses and this part of the solar system. He also has the power to make a better planet and a better solar system. It all depends on him. Opa, still, we cannot interfere. No matter what the results. Lets just observe.Ok Opa?

OPA

Ok,Kiwa. The oil that had consumed the planet had caught on fire.

The Zartolians observed the fires all over the world. They also observed Emanon over the Middle East. They had observed all that he had created and destroyed.

OPA

Kiwa?

KIWA

Yes,Opa?

OPA

I think he is realizing the full extent of his powers.

KIWA

I see.

OPA

I am concerned about the water turning black in various locations. What do you think he is doing?

KIWA

I don't know. Only he knows the reason. He knows his kind better than us. I've been around a lot of worlds in other solar systems planting these devices. I have observed the results. I have realized that every species wants to have an ideal world to live in. No matter what the cost may be. Each species have a need to make a change. All we have to do is not interfere.

Emanon remembered how his mother would read to him from the bible. She told him about Jesus and the good he had done for a lot of people before the government killed him.

EMANON

The Middle East was his land. I'll place a force field over the Middle East and declare It Holy ground. The Middle East will be protected from all outside forces. Everyone all over the planet will respect it. Jesus? This is for you.

EXT- THE NEW MIDDLE EAST- DAY

A huge dome appeared over the Middle East. Thousands of animals appeared out of nowhere. Hundreds of lakes all shaped differently appeared in place of deserts. The lakes were filled with all types of fish. All types of fruit trees grew all over the desert. Corn fields grew from the ground at amazing speed. Grape vines appeared all around the villages and cities. Emanon spoke in the minds of all of the citizens.

EMANON

I want you men to respect all women. For every crime that is commited a limb from your body will disappear. This country will be the sole supplier of oil for the world. The oil will be distributed equally to everyone. In the name of Jesus this is Holy Land and it will be respected by everyone.

ZARTOLIAN

Emanon? You have proven yourself worthy of becoming a Zartolian soldier. We the Zartolians will be there to bring you back with us in one of your Earth hours.

EMANON

In the beginning I had told you that my name was Ramone in order for me to tell you my story. I had to tell you how it all started. Starting with my real name. It's been two years since this all began. I am nineteen years old now. I am waiting here on the remote side of this planet to be picked up. The planet Earth is now a perfect planet. There are no more wars. No more hunger. The people are all respecting each other. There are no more classes of people. There are no more crimes. The world has become one with love and peace. Mankind can now mature on their own without any interference. I can see billions of stars.Our sun is a star surrounded by planets and if every star is surrounded by planets and at least one planet has life for each star I will have many adventures in store for me.I can see a bright star now getting brighter and coming closer.I guess this is it. The Zartolians are arriving.

Emanon saw a beam of light coming towards him.

THE END
