EXT. LANCING BEACH - DAY

Brilliant orange shines down onto the beach.

It's empty. All you can hear are the sounds of the waves crashing into the rocks.

A YELLOW SIGN fills the screen reading: CAUTION - KEEP AWAY FROM DEEP VOIDS - Below the sign sits various shapes and sizes of white rocks.

FADE THROUGH

EXT. LANCING BEACH - DAY

Further down the beach walks a lonely YOUNG WOMAN.

She's no more than 20 years old.

Slowly she walks the shoreline as the waves crash around her ankles and looks out over the horizon. She looks lost in her thoughts.

FADE THROUGH

EXT. LANCING BEACH - DAY

She sits on the stones yet to be hit by the sea and admires her surroundings.

EXT. LANCING BEACH - PIER - DAY

Just near where she sits is the PIER.

A YOUNG MAN is standing on it and looks over the sea.

EXT. LANCING BEACH - DAY

The Young Woman uses her hand as a visor to figure out if she knows him as it's just the two of them around.

EXT. LANCING BEACH - PIER - DAY

The Young Man begins moving further up the pier.

EXT. LANCING BEACH - DAY

The Young Woman gets up and begins to follow him.

EXT. PIER - DAY

The Young Woman is on the Pier and tries to catch up with the Man.

He disappears around the corner.

At the tip of the Pier the Young Woman walks over and stands looking over at the ocean. Her hands grip the pole.

She begins to feel a chill and wraps her arms around herself.

The Young Man approaches her and puts a hand on her shoulder.

The Young Woman turns around and sees him and smiles. She puts her head into his chest and the two embrace.

FADE THROUGH

EXT. LANCING BEACH - DAY

The two walk along the beach. The Young Man has his arm over her shoulders. They look happy.

FADE THROUGH

EXT. LANCING BEACH - DAY

The two sit with their backs facing us looking over the sea. The Young girl rests her head on his shoulder.

FLASH CUT

INT. ROOM - DAY

A dull blue light fills the room.

A Man in a Doctor's coat stands next to a table. He's looking at something off screen.

We see it's the Young Lady from the beach.

She sits strapped to a chair. She stares into nothing and beyond. Her mouth a gape with drool slipping out one side.

The doctor shakes his head and motions a cut throat gesture.

Another Doctor standing next to the Young Woman grabs some pliers. He's the Young Man from the beach.

With no emotion on his face - he reaches behind the woman's head and pulls out a microchip.

The other doctor seems really frustrated and angry. He throws his pen on the table and sits, thinking of his next move.

DOCTOR #1
(subtitled)
That lasted four months. It should've been longer.

DOCTOR #2
(subtitled)
What do we do now?

DOCTOR #1
(subtitled)
Continue with the research. This time with another body. This android has had it.

The second Doctor nods in agreement and walks back to the Young Woman.

She sits staring into nothingness.

We slowly zoom to her eyes and:

FADE TO

EXT. LANCING BEACH - DAY

The Young Man and Young Woman sit with their backs to us.
