

Bentley Maguire-An Autistic Mobster

Hunter Huiet / 989-352-6780 / huiethunter125@outlook.com

LOGLINE

Meet Bentley Enzo Maguire, an autistic mobster. He's going to help the FBI take down the only family he knows, The Donato Crime Family.

ACT ONE

Our movie starts in an interrogation room. Bentley is being questioned about his life in the mafia that is run by female crime boss Angie Donato. Charlotte Madden who the FBI director assigns Cindy Harlow and Natalie Sanchez to go undercover to see if Bentley will flip. They reluctantly obey the order. On the evening of the operation, Cindy and Natalie attend a card game at the residency of the Donato Crime Family, Neighborhood Hearts Manor in Saginaw, Michigan. While the crime family and friends are taking a break from playing the card game "Screw Your Neighbor" Angie receives multiple text messages from Bentley and feels awful about it because she was ignoring her phone because she had no idea who it was.

ACT TWO

Natalie Sanchez, and Cindy Harlow who are two undercover FBI agents go down into the basement to check up on Bentley. After Bentley learns from Angie why she didn't do anything about it earlier, he laughs it off and introduces himself to Cindy and Natalie. Then Angie calls Teresa Testarossa her right hand woman and orders her to shut the game down and she does so. The next night, Bentley becomes a mob boss and loses his virginity to Natalie Sanchez. Natalie later confesses to her boss Charlotte Madden that she has feelings for Bentley. Bentley has dinner with Cindy, Natalie and two of her other FBI agent friends Lindsay Blanchard, and Milton Jones. Milton ruins dinner. Later on that evening Bentley has a panic attack and is comforted by Teresa and Angie. He explains to them that Andy Carbone, who was Bentley's sponsor, has been running his mouth to the FBI. Andy is killed late at night the next evening. The next day Natalie and Cindy confess to Bentley that the two of them work for the FBI. Bentley agrees to help the FBI.

ACT THREE

Bentley confesses in the interrogation room that he was never happy being a part of the mafia. He is forever grateful to the FBI for bringing him in. Charlotte is forever grateful.

Bentley meets the prosecutor of the case, Ernie Leitz. He rats Lindsay Blanchard and Milton Jones out because the two of them are corrupt FBI agents who plan on shutting the organized crime unit down which is run by Charlotte Madden, along with a planned armed robbery taking place at her office. She is furious when she finds this information out.

WRAP-UP

The armed robbery goes on as planned. Everyone including Milton and Lindsay is arrested. The next afternoon during an interrogation Teresa and Angie find out that Natalie and Bentley were secretly married. The two of them are horrified. Bentley testifies against Lindsay, Milton, Teresa, and Angie. Although Teresa and Angie are devastated they forgive Bentley and promise not to put a hit on him or his future family. Four years pass by, Bentley and Natalie are starting a new life in Anderson, South Carolina.

No, there will not be a sequel. However, there could be a prequel about how Angie became the crime boss of the now-defunct Donato Crime Family