FADE IN:

INT. KITCHEN - NIGHT

A visibly frustrated SCREENWRITER (40) glares at his laptop screen. His WIFE (38) walks in, pours herself a cup of coffee.

WIFE

What's wrong, they didn't like your story?

SCREENWRITER

That's just the thing. I have no idea.

Screenwriter swings his laptop around so that his Wife can see.

SCREENWRITER

No one said anything about the story.

WIFE

What?

SCREENWRITER

It's all stuff about formatting!
Like complaining about some stupid orphans.

WIFE

You didn't talk about anyone's parents.

Screenwriter shakes his head, pulls up the screenplay on his laptop.

SCREENWRITER

No, it's when you end something with only one word on the last line.

WIFE

Oh.

SCREENWRITER

Like any GOOD reviewer would notice orphans!

Notice?

FADE OUT.
