a psychological thriller/55 pages(small cast/big suspense)

logline: can we play chess with our destiny?.

synopsis

"Holy Matrimony" is a psychological thriller that focuses on the corrupt relationship between two different married couples. After being injured in a hit-and-run accident, the story follows Haim , hires his private investigator friend to help uncover the truth after suspecting his wife is trying to kill him. One question that perfectly captures the story's essence is, "can we play chess with our destiny?".

Haim asks his private investigator friend Israel, for help, believing that his wife, Rita, is trying to kill him after being injured in a hit-and-run attack. While investigating Israel doesn't know that his wife Hedva , is unfaithful with another younger man. Israel soon discovers that Rita is plotting to kill Haim with her lover Zadok, who had tried to run Haim over. Israel ,soon catches them red-handed and captures Rita for her crimes. Meanwhile, Hedva has become addicted to drugs due to Israel abuse of her, and she tragically kills herself. After Israel ,discovers her body, he crazily laughs, showing his true corrupt colors.

Note:

I own a script and video pilot based on this story.
