ONCE UPON A TIME IN A SCHOOL

Written by
Helio J Cordeiro

Helio J Cordeiro
hjcordeiro@hotmail.com
Copyright©2006
FADE IN:

EXT. GATE – EARLY MORNING
The gate isn’t showed in its totality.
A young girl, about 16 years old, dressed with high school outfit, is coming to get out home.
She opens the gate. Close it back and move towards through out the pavement.

EXT. ROAD – EARLY MORNING
The young girl walks unconcerned.
She stops to cross to the other side of the street.
She waits the traffic light opens the green light.
It finally greens and the young girl crosses the zebra.

EXT. HIGH SCHOOL – EARLY MORNING
The young girl walks towards the main entrance.
She mixes each other with the others students and they get inside.

EXT. HIGH SCHOOL – LATER
The boy and girls get out from the main entrance. Among of them there is the young girl.
She takes her walk on the pavement back home.

EXT. ROAD – EARLY MORNING
The young girl walks unconcerned.
She stops to cross to the other side of the street opposite where she did when she was going to the high school.
The traffic light is green and the young girl moves on.

EXT. GATE – DAY
She arrives at the gate that is not seen in its totality.
She opens it, closes it back and get in.
Slowly, could be seen that the girl enters in a CEMETERY!
As she walks she disappears along the pathway.

FADE OUT