A Long time Ago in a Galaxy far far away...

EXT. PLAINS OF DANTOOINE - DAY

A horse like creature is galloping across the rolling hills of Dantooine with a figure riding on top cloaked in the robes of a Jedi.

The SHROAT could easily pass for a horse if its eyes weren't where a horses nose would be and a nose where it's eyes would be.

The figure gallops through the prairies strong and majestic. They approach a heard of antelope like creatures that run alongside of the mysterious rider.

But like all things in nature the heard is being hunted by an alpha. A wolf runs after the herd about to make quick work of one of the slower bucks.

A Green light saber ignites as the hood blows back revealing the identity of the rider. Qui-Gon Jinn is riding the beast. With a few quick flashes of the saber the beast is scared and the rider continues to his destination.

EXT. OUTSIDE OF CAVES - DAY

Qui-Gon de-mounts his Shroat leaving him about his business. He walks to the entrance of a small cave and is met by a Young Kuill at the start of his long career as a servant.

QUI-GON

Were you the one who sent the message?

YOUNG KUIILL

My masters sent the message. I was to meet you here and collect the reward.

There is an ancient writing on engraved on the stones of the entrance to the cave.

QUI-GON

As agreed.

Qui-Gon throws a metallic card of republic credits at the young Ugnought.

YOUNG KUIIL

While on Dantooine I will serve you for the remainder of your visit. I have spoken.

Qui-Gon's hand touches the flat round archway of the ancient ruins opening a doorway to an ancient cave. Almost as if somebody knew he was coming.

INT. ANCIENT JEDI CAVE

The Jedi wonders through the dark cave. Fog creeps up on the Jedi blocking his path and tying down his legs. Similar to when Luke first confronted Vader in a cave in the Degobah System.

The cave leads to a center room with a ancient artifact in the middle of the atrium like opening.

As Qui-Gon moves closer to the artifact a cloaked figure appears in the room. All of a sudden audiences begin to realize the burning question left at the end of Episode 3. How does Qui-Gon know how to return from the netherworld of the force?

BASTILLA (CATE BLANCHET)

Do you seek power? Is that why you've come?

QUI-GON

The Jedi don't seek power. Power is gift to defend the innocent and to bring balance to the force.

BASTILLA

You speak as he did once. In this holocrun lies his sacrifice. A Jedi who believed in love and was driven to the darkest of places and turned towards the light when he lost what was closest to him. Me.

QUI-GON

You were once a Jedi?

BASTILLA

Once. In this holocrun lies the training needed to endure in the netherworld of the force. The power beyond what most can possibly imagine. Wisdom a Jedi's greatest weapon.

BASTILLA (CONT'D)

Love and sacrifice, the ability to return from the netherworld of the force. It is all but yours Jedi. You have but to defeat your worst enemy.

QUI-GON

Who is it?

BASTILLA

The most evil part of us all.

Breaths in the deep. The voice of Darth Vader as he emerges from the fog. His red lightsaber drawn.

Qui-Gon moves quickly to meet his foe. A slow motion saber fight. Qui-Gon quickly overcomes his foe. With a quick slice to the head Vader falls to the ground. His head rolls in the foggy surface of the cave.

BASTILLA (CONT'D)

Use it well. Power is always the corrupted.

Bastilla's ghost fades away.

STAR WARS INTRO CREDITS

EPISODE 10:

The Rebellion Reborn:

The end of years of conflict has begun to spread peace and prosperity throughout the galaxy. The Republic has begun forming new alliances and building a fleet of Starships meant to keep peace and defeat the remnants of the final order.

Rey Skywalker has begun to train a new group of Jedi Knights to uphold justice and keep the balance of the force throughout the galaxy.

But echoes of old foes still haunt the vulnerable. Attacks continue on systems who've joined the republic. No identity of the foe has been revealed. Whatever it is, has halted any progress made towards prosperity in the galaxy.

EPISODE 10: (CONT'D)

A frigate has been dispatched in the Odiawa System to find the source of attacks that have plagued the trade routes between the outer rim and inner republic systems.

EXT. ODIAWA SYSTEM - SPACE

A republic Frigate drops out of hyper space. It is a large blue star. The Frigate drops out of hyperspace near the orbit of a gas giant. Similar to Saterun the planet has an asteroid belt orbiting her.

INT. REPUBLIC FRIGATE BRIDGE - DAY

The crew is hard at work at their stations. Professionals ready to jump into combat at any moment.

CAPTAIN JOUSTA

Status report.

HEMLSMAN

There is no sign of any imperial activity captain.

EXT. THE DARKNESS OF SPACE

Breathing in and out. Reminiscent of Vader but different. Dark, slow and sadistic. The suit supports him in outer space. He can breathe for himself.

A black suit is drifting alone in the darkness of space. The camera angle looks like the person bursts into space uncontrolled but soon moves into controls as the suite has minor thrusters to move him closer to the Frigate.

EXT. SIDE OF REPUBLIC FRIGATE

The suite slowly drifts towards the Frigate. Almost looks like a weird hybrid between Vader and Iron man.

Magnetic boots slowly attach to the hull of the Frigate. The suit must be using some sort of stealth technology.

A lightsaber attached to the belt of the suite moves from the belt of the mysterious figure into his hands using the force.

A lightsaber is thrust into the hull of the frigate. He carves a human size hole into the ship.

INT. FRIGATE CORRIDOR - DAY

Red lights flash from the hull breach. Alarms go off. Sounds of a breached vacuum sucking out of the ship.

All of a sudden the lights in the ship burst. He is using the force to darken interior of the ship and create complete darkness in his infiltration.

Republic soldiers evacuate the corridor and shut the doors behind them.

One speaks into a communication terminal.

REPUBLIC SOLDIER

We have a breach.

The dark suite plunges into the corridor. Sounds of breathing through the suit. The room is completely depressurized in zero gravity.

INT. FRIGATE BAY - DAY

A group of republic soldiers forms in front of the door. They anxiously await the mysterious threat on the other side with blasters in hand.

The lights in the room mysteriously burst. The room is in complete darkness.

The doors sound like they are opening. A quick sound of air being sucked out of the room. But the doors seem to close suddenly.

REPUBLIC SOLDIER HELMET CAMERA

This soldier starts gasping for air. He sees the soldiers around him gasping for air from the light positioned on his blaster.

REPUBLIC SOLDIER

Hull depressurized.

The soldiers next to him are also having difficulty breathing.

One of the soldiers suddenly flies into the air. His fragile body snapping against the rigid hull of the frigate.

INT. FRIGATE BAY - DAY

The mysterious Sith is among the soldiers slowly choking them out using the force. His red lightsaber ignites.

He's not using it. Carrying the blade only to illuminate the suffering of the republic troops as their bodies are tossed around the ship like puppets.

INT. FRIGATE BRIDGE - DAY

The helmsman and other bridge crew slowly begin to collapse, Their eyes bloodshot.

The doors open and the mysterious Sith walks through.

CAPTAIN JOUSTA

Well then get on with it.

The helmet of the Sith begins to decompress. The breathing apparatus disengages. The Sith takes off his helmet revealing his identity. This is DARTH MORTOUITIS. About the same age as Luke Skywalker. Ideally ROBERT DOWNEY JR.

DARTH MORTOUITIS

No. You're no use to me dead.

EXT. KASHYYYK FOREST TRAIL - MORNING

Kids laughter in the background. A young girl, maybe 15 years old, sits by a small stream flowing off the branch systems of a gigantic tree system.

Strangle, water forms a large droplet in midair. She is using the force to hold the water in midair. She moves towards it about to take a drink. This is Kira, a young apprentice learning the ways of the force.

The water bubble bursts into peaces as a young boy runs into it. The is Liam, Rey's first apprentice.

LIAM

You're never going to finish the hike if stop for water every five seconds.

KIRA

Watch me.

Kira runs to catch up to Liam. Three other kids are following them, two of the younglings are alien species. Diversity matters.

EXT. KASHYYK ESCARPMENT - MORNING

The children run into a root system that follows a massive cliff face. It looks like you can see the all of Kashyyk from this point.

Magnificent trees towering higher than skyscrapers. Gorgeous waterfalls. Birds the size of dinosaurs. They've rebounded after the fall of the empire.

The younglings run across the roots without fear or hesitation. The force guides every footstep. They're one with the force.

IN. KASHYYK TREEHOUSE - DAY

The younglings run into the center of the tree house. It resembles a large circular dojo. Similar to when Neo first challenged Morpheus.

REY is in the center. Smiling at the sight of the younglings all pouring in ready for today's lesson.

Kira runs right up to Rey.

KIRA

I used the force to drink water. It was amazing. Just hovering there like a speeder.

REY

Amazing. Go have a seat. We're ready to start today's lesson.

Kira runs back to her seat with the other younglings.

GROGU

So sure you are the teacher today.

REY

A Jedi uses their knowledge of the force for knowledge and defense. Never attack.

GROGU

Unsure of attack a Jedi can never be. Ah....

Grogu does a full flip over Rey. He is extending his little green lightsaber at the same time.

Rey extends her yellow lightsaber at the same time. The two are locked in an epic lightsaber duo. A choreography similar to that of the matrix. These two are really going at it.

Rey gives a quick flutter back and forward of her lightsaber. Knocking Grogu's saber from his hand sending him to all fours.

REY

Good. Discipline, foresight. A Jedi's strength flows through the force. Not the end of his lightsaber.

Grogu is rebounding ready to have another go at Rey. The two lock sabers again. Grogu is bouncing around the tree house. Getting in hit after hit against Rey.

Then finally he gets the better of her. It looks like Rey is no longer the last of her kind.

REY (CONT'D)

It only took you seventy years.

GROGU

Just getting warmed up. I am.

There Sabers turn off.

REY

It's been a long journey. But I think we can both say. I'm no longer the last Jedi.

GROGU

Not while I'm still here.

The children all clap and cheer. An old friend walks in as they finish up. It's Finn.

FINN

It's time.

KIRA

Time for what?

REY

To say goodbye to an old friend.

EXT. TREE VILLAGE - NIGHT

There is a large gathering of Wookies around a center coffin. It looks like Chewbacca. The old timer looks like he passed away of natural causes.

Rey and the others are joined by all our returning heroes to say goodbye to a classic character in Star Wars.

Rey carries over a torch to the coffin area. Wood is placed around the coffin. Hundreds of Wookies have come to pay their respect to the hero.

REY

Thank you Chewbacca. You'll be missed.

Rey lights the fire. Moans of mourning come from the surrounding Wookies. He is getting the goodbye he deserves. It looks like a small family of Wookies is there. Maybe Chewies grandchildren.

Some celebrations go on in the background. The mood eases up. Poe is in a background telling a story.

POE

I remember he pulled his both his arms off.

REPUBLIC MESSENGER

Mam we've made contact with the imperial fleet.

REY

Take us there.

EXT. KASHYYK COMMMAND CENTRE - NIGHT

The heroes are all the gathered in the command center. A transmission is being projected on the center console. Captain Josta is the center of the transmission.

CAPTAIN JOUSTA

We've followed a imperial fleet Odiawa system. We were able to detect the them orbiting the far side of a gas giant.

A hologram shows a projection of a massive fleet of star destroyers orbiting a gas giant.

CAPTAIN JOUSTA (CONT'D)

You have to catch them here. Before they get away. It's our only chance.

The hologram fades out.

POE

He's right. We need to send the fleet and finish them now. Before they can launch anymore attacks on republic systems.

REY

You're right. But something feels. I'll be coming with the fleet.

EXT. KASHYYK LANDING PAD - NIGHT

A republic shuttle awaits Rey as she says goodbye to Grogu.

REY

You'll look after them when I'm gone.

GROGU

Something is drawing you to them?

REY

Just a feeling. Uncertainty. I'll be back soon.

Rey boards the shuttle and it takes off.

INT. STAR DESTROYER BRIDGE - DAY

Darth Mortoutious is on the bridge accompanied by his best friend and long serving general. GENERAL REGAL is proud and experienced. Maybe Brendan Gleeson if he's available. This general has survived by being strategic and ambiguous.

GENERAL REGAL

It's been years in the waiting my lord. Thousands of troops loyal to you await. The rebels are on there way.

DARTH MORTOUITIS

It's beautiful isn't it. The natural transition of the light returning to the dark where it belongs, where it came from.

(MORE)

The end of life for a star. An event of a not seen in several lifetimes. The perfect opportunity to trap the rebels and bring balance back darkness into the galaxy.

GENERAL REGAL

Forever will there be tales of how they cast out the strongest of them like he was nothing. Only for him to return and retake the galaxy where others have failed so tragically.

DARTH MORTOUITIS

Yes. I remember that day. Where he cast me out.

FLASHBACK:

EXT. MON CALAMARI SEASIDE CITY - DAY

A classic imperial shuttle is prepping for take off on top of a platform. The city looks like it is hovering above the surface of a limitless ocean. This is one of the MOM CALAMARI Seaside cities. Perfect and round with views that scream Oceanside paradise.

Vader is standing on the platform. A young Robert Downey Jr. beside him, Pixar work your magic.

Two Mon Calamari prisoners are awaiting Vader's gripping interrogation.

VADER

Make them tell you.

YOUNG DARTH MORTOUITIS

I. I can't. He hasn't done anything.

VADER

Weakness. I sense weakness in you. You cannot be my apprentice. You don't have the will. The strength.

One of the Mon Calamari prisoners is sent flying into the a nearby railing. After a sudden click of his spine, Vader throws him into the sea using the force.

Vader grips the other prisoner with famous neck grip.

VADER (CONT'D)

Who gave you the plans for the death star.

MON CALAMARI PRISONER

A rebel spy. One of the shield generator engineers.

VADER

Where are they?

MON CALAMARI PRISONER

The rebels have them. Choke. Choke.

The Mon Calamari prisoner falls to the ground. Dead.

Young Darth Mortouitis falls to his knees.

The force. It left me.

VADER

No. You are too weak. Nothing compares to the power of the force.

Vader seems to be reaching towards the city. Which must be populated with hundreds or thousands of Mon Calamari.

The ground is shaking. The part of the the city starts moving. Something that should be impossible. A large crack starts to forms in the center of the massive city.

Devastation can be heard in the background. It's as if Vader has created an earth quick down the middle of the city.

Young Darth Mortouitis is brought to his knees in front of a burning city. Devastation everywhere. He is left alone as Vader's shuttle takes off in the background.

INT. STAR DESTROYER BRIDGE - DAY

A look of completion on Darth Mortouitis face. His Star Destroyer fleet in the background floating against the back drop of a gas giant.

DARTH MORTOUITIS

Finally a chance at redemption. To prove I'm the rightful ruler of these empires.

EXT. ODIAWA SYSTEM - DAY

A republic fleet is exiting hyperspace. They are just outside the Asteroid. The fleet well equipped to deal with the threat of the old empire.

We zoom in on a central Republic cruiser. Onto the bridge where Rey awaits.

INT. REPUBLIC CRUISER BRIDGE - DAY

Rey is her Jedi Robes at the center of the bridge of the republic cruiser.

REPUBLIC BRIDGE OFFICER
We've spotted the fleet.

Rey looks like she is in deep concentration. Trying to use the force to reach out to her surroundings. Her eyes blink open.

Metal in the ship can be heard bending and warping.

EXT. ODIAWA SYSTEM - DAY

The gas giant is breaking apart forming nebula like clouds being sucked in towards the imploding star like arms reaching towards the center star.

The Star of the Odiawa system is going super Nova. It looks like the Star is imploding.

INT. REPUBLIC CRUISER BRIDGE - DAY

The bridge crew is all of a sudden in a panic.

REY
What's happening?

REPUBLIC BRIDGE OFFICER
The star. It looks like it's going Nova.

EXT. ODIAWA SYSTEM - DAY

The mysterious Sith fleet jumps away into hyperspace. Leaving the republic fleet in their dust.

Break to Treatment-

The fleet is stuck being sucked into a black hole.

The forces under control of Darth Mortouitis begin their attack on Kayshyyk.

Rey comes up with a plan to use the stranded Republic Frigate to escape the black hole, it's the only ship out of range of being sucked into the black hole. The heroes use a rigged transport with x-wing thrusters to reach it. Captain Jousta is alive but battered and bruised by his torturer.

Rey's plan is to find the Falcun to tow the ships out of the Black hole.

She contacts Maz Kanata. The Falcun is being sold to the huts for money, who is responsible? Chewie gave it to Lando, who lost it in a card game again.

Two droids are moving through a series of tunnels. Bright and sandy as if they were in a desert. It is C-3PO and BB8. C-3PO makes a funny remark "well I much rather prefer your company over that rusty pile of bolts. He doesn't even work half the time and he's always going on about Luke Skywalker this and that".

Zoom out. The tunnels are honeycombed and all lead to central patio overlooking a massive escarpment. This is the Hutt Spa on Nal Hutta. Patches of cloudy skies drip rain onto the desert creating the ideal living conditions for the Hutts muddy and wet. A modern city can be seen far off in the background.

The two droids were sent there to participate in the bidding of the fastest ship in the galaxy. The Millennium Falcun.

Dj is there awaiting the bidding with a few other members of the resistance in hiding. Jabba the Hutt's son begins the bidding on Jabba's estate sale using C-3PO's translation skills. BB8 slips inside the ship and begins hijacking the controls.

The rebels make their move getting the jump on the Hutts. Finn confronts DJ and blasts him with a stun. Two dark figures emerge from the caves. Sith of unknown origin, a woman and a man. They end the brawl with a few strokes of their red lightsabers.

The rebels are in restraints Poe, Finn and Rose. C-3PO "that concludes the bidding". But then finger snaps echoing in the tunnels. The same that happened in the ancient Jedi cave. It begins to rain on the Hutt's Spa.

Lightning strikes. Rey appears in the middle of the two dark Jedi draped in Jedi robes. Her lightsaber activates. She begins to dual the two Sith.

BB8 has hacked Falcuns controls and begins blasting the place up. Storm troopers fly left and right. Poe takes the helm of the ship and the rebels narrowly escape.

Poe flies the ship through worm tunnels on the planets surface to escape the tie fighters pursuing them.

We see on montage of destruction on Kashyyyk.

"We've got our cargo safely on board, are you sure you want to do this" Poe says to Rey. "We don't have any choice. Take the Falcun back to the fleet get them free, I'll go back to Kayshyyyk. Like it or not we live or die with the Wookies" Rey says.

Rey flies the republic frigate ship through a blockade guarding the Wookie home world. The planetary shield holds back the impending fleet of star destroyers.

Rose gets hold of the Wookies and asks for permission to dock. They narrowly out run a small contingent of fighters. They land the ship on a different part of Kashyyyk that we haven't seen before. Trees three times as tall as skyscrapers.

The Wookies have set up a decent ground defense and a planetary shield after years of small rebel victories. Rey tells Poe to rally any support he can for the fight to come.

Rey asks the Wookies for a speeder and tasks Finn and Rose with getting DJ to fool the blockade and to evacuate the planet. "The defenses have to hold" she says.

Rey takes a speeder mysteriously into the depths of the forest below to find Grogu and the younglings. It seems like miles to the ground floor.

"Jedi were trained to find caves deep in the surface of planets rich in life. This is where crystals grew in areas where the force was strongest" Grogu.

Grogu takes the children into the caves.

The Empire begins an all out ground assault on Kashyyyk. Walkers storm the skyscraper like trees. The battle begins Finn and Rose convinces DJ to help.

Wookies and other rebels begin to fight and die. It is a bit of a slaughter at first the Wookies look to be holding off the empire things are desperate.

The younglings begin to assemble their lightsabers. Out of the forest his whispers sound in the darkness. "What have you brought me Rey. A gift". Laughter. "All of Skywalker's apprentices, not one could resist the darkside of the force. Not even Luke that's why he hid like a coward."

Grogu faces off with the Sith, a few Knights of Ren, and Darth Mortouitis. They fight and he loses. One of the younglings loses an arm. "Your defeat was incredible, your fall to the darkside only a matter of time".

Things look dire for the Wookies and rebels. The walkers advance on them it is only a matter of time before the defenses fall.

It's an empty cave on Tatooine. The ancient Jedi Artifact in the center. A shadowed ghost stands in robes in the ancient Jedi cave, it's Leia, a ghosted Luke appears begging her not to do it "She can't stop him alone, She faced her darkest fears, now it's your time to face yours. It was a neat trick but only one of us was always meant to come back from the force." – Leia

In her robes she fades away. Luke's robes lying empty begin to take shape. Luke appears in his robes and takes a deep breath as he comes back to life returning from the netherworld of the force. "What have you done" he says.

Luke walks over to Obiwan's hut still intact. He finds his way back to his old house where he uses the force to extract two lightsabers out of the ground.

Darth Mortouitis is confronted by Rey. As Grogu and the others are loaded as prisoners onto a transport the two begin a duel. The duel is taken onto the speeder transports that house the younglings. A next level saber fight ensues as Grogu breaks free and younglings fight the group of Sith warriors.

Luke takes a run at the blockade of Kashyyyk. He breaks through using his excellent piloting skills.

The First Order walkers get a clear shot at the planetary shield generators and they take it down. Star Destroyers start entering the atmosphere.

Luke lands at the rebel base a group of platforms high above in the trees. Finn meets Luke "Hey I thought you were dead". "Me too kid" Luke responds. Finn tells Luke "The planetary shield is down we have to evacuate".

DJ "sorry to ruin your day kid but I can't get through. Tried everything I know.". "Not everything" Luke says.

"There is something different about you kid. Something special. Everything I'm feeling tells me you're a storm trooper but you're here now fighting with us. Bleeding with us. That's what revolutions are built on".

Finn "What?"

"Can you open up a transmission?" Luke. "To who?" DJ. "The storm troopers" Luke. "That's an area much less guarded, it would be like talking to a wall" DJ. "You talk to their minds and I'll talk to their hearts." Luke.

Finn "No, what are you talking about we need to evacuate." Luke replies "Everything we need to win this battle is here you just need to believe, make them feel what you felt when you took that mask off."

Finn stands on the edge of the forest platform, the sun is setting and the battle looms in the background. BB8 rolls to his side. DJ says "And we're good". BB8 starts recording.

FINN

"I was a storm trooper."

Storm Troopers begin to see Finn in their visors and in light holograms on the battlefield.

Luke walks up behind Finn his palm touches him on the back behind his heart.

LUKE

"Remember, make them feel what you felt, think what you thought."

Luke drops to his knees in a meditative state.

Finn

"Many of you are the same as I am. Taken from you're homes. Forced to do terrible things, to be the slaves of evil men. Today you can chose. Like I did. You can chose to live free and in peace. To come into the light."

Luke

"Now I see."

Flashback:

Cloud city is under siege. Children are being loaded onto a transport. A start destroyer in the background. Storm troopers are tearing a young child out of the hands of his parents.

Snoke himself moves hundreds of children into the transport and uses his force lightning to kill a soldier.

End Flashback:

Finn

"So rise up. Take off your helmets and end this. Take them down and live free."

Storm troopers begin to take off their helmets and change sides.

Darth Mortouitis lands on the prisoner transport. He is on a transport with Rey and the younglings. Grogu is jumping back and forward on the enemy speeders. "What's that? What's happening? Darth Mortouitis says. "He's back" Rey says.

Poe starts the process of hooking up the republic fleet to cables. The Falcon begins to tow the fleet out of the black hole. The Falcun gets crippled by the act. It's dead in the water torn apart.

The storm troopers aboard the transport begin attacking Darth Mortouitis and the other Sith. They free Rey and the younglings. Rey gets her lightsaber back.

Storm troopers fly speeders to the transport. Rey throws the injured youngling aboard the speeder and tells them "Get back to the Wookies.

Darth Mortouitis and the Sith make quick work of a large contingent of Storm troopers that turned against him. They call over speeders to pursue Rey.

They are in hot pursuit through the forest. Rey is covering the escape of the younglings.

Poe arrives with the republic fleet of ships. They begin to engage the fleet. Some of the star destroyers start turning on each other. Some start joining the rebel fleet.

Rey is outrunning Darth Mortouitis speeders. They're are moving through the forest at dangerous speed. They corner Rey's speeder and bring her down.

They capture her again. Close to the edge of the massive water fall. The sun is setting on Kashyyyk. Fires burn the forest for as far as the eyes can see.

DARTH MORTOUITIS

I like you, you challenge me.

Sounds in the forest.

LUKE

I'm back.

Luke walks out of the forest.

LUKE (CONT'D)

You were all taught to be a force of darkness in the galaxy. Vader's legacy was that he turned from the darkness to the light. You can too.

Luke starts dueling the Sith apprentices. He takes the arm off one. Barely holding on he is taking them all on. He pushes them using the force.

"You killed her to get to me I hope it was worth it" Mortouitis says. The Wookies and storm troopers without helmets start closing in on the dueling Jedi. Luke stabs one of the Sith in the heart with his lightsaber.

Rey stumbles to her feet just as General Regal orders a retreat. "If you don't leave now we'll lose everything" - Regal.

Darth Mortouitis orders the immediate retreat. He is picked up in his shuttle and the Knights of Ren retreat.

The Wookies and Luke raise there blasters and lightsaber.

LUKE (CONT'D)

Told you I'd see you around.

A medical camp in the forest Luke looks after a youngling. "I had one arm once it's not so bad". Rey takes Luke aside.

"What happened?" Rey asks. Luke brings her to a bonfire with one of the Knights of Ren corpses.

LUKE (CONT'D)

I found him working in the back of a kitchen on Luxe'm. Innocent, wanted to see the galaxy make a difference. Not to different from your kids.

REY

But how?

LUKE

Leia and I were born together from the same mother. In the eyes of the force we were the same. The same life, the same power and ability.

(MORE)

LUKE (CONT'D)

When Ben turned and silenced millions of voices across the galaxy. She wanted to bring back to end this with a lightsaber. Correct the mistake I made all those years ago. An ancient Jedi hologram help the knowledge to become one with the force. It also bridged the gap between life and death.

REY

"What now?"

LUKE

Now. We've won a great battle. We celebrate our freedom and morn our dead. Tomorrow we finish this. You did good kid.

Luke and Rey learn that there is a new super weapon being constructed on Coruscant. The heart of the former republic.

Coruscant has a small chunk of it is floating in orbit. A large antenna fills the gap in a crater that leads to the planets core. Another star killer base. Molten lava spills out of the planets core.

DARTH MORTOUITIS

Beautiful isn't it. Once the center of the galactic republic now conquered. The planetary shields held the atmosphere intact when Starkiller hit the planet. Creating a beautiful power source. The planets core.

GENERAL REGAL

Sixty percent of our forces remain loyal. I can't tell you how big a blow they've struck.

DARTH MORTOUITIS

Fear will keep them at bay. The rebels won't strike the base. If the station dies so does the planet. One trillion souls.

Luke plans his infiltration of the base with Rey. The defenses near impenetrable but the heroes plan to go to Coruscant and infiltrate the base ahead of the assault.

Luke and Rey lead the ground assault they meet with a mob of Rebels in front of the downed statue of the Emperor. Luke convinces them to fight.

LUKE

You've all fought for so long. I know the galaxy has been without hope for so long. Today we can change that. We can confront the darkness with the light. Today we can take back our freedom. Will you help me?

A large Walker turns the corner and fires a blaster shot at Luke. He freezes it in mid air and walks over to the walker. He takes out the legs with his Saber. Sending hope into the crowds rebellious spirit.

Luke and Rey recruit some help on the surface of Coruscant to infiltrate the base. They crawl through the sewers to reach the base. Luke kills a sewer monster. The rebel fleet plans their attack.

Rey and Luke get close to Darth Mortouitis and the Sith. They are in a large spire over looking the super weapon. Luke fights off the Sith while Rey takes on Mortouitis. One by one Luke brings down the Sith warriors while Rey faces off with Mortouitis.

The rebel fleet attacks but can't penetrate the defenses. Luke takes a few saber shots to the body and is left limp on the ground weakened.

Rey gets the upper hand on Darth Mortouitis striking him down. Injured he says "It's about to fire, it will end you and all of them".

Luke injured on the ground crawls over to Rey. Lava shooting up from the planets core. The weapon is about to fire.

REY

What do we do now?

Luke stares up at the massive moon size piece of Coruscant floating like a moon.

LUKE

We kid. There isn't much I can do. Not like this. Look up there, that missing piece belongs home.

REY

"No I can't. It's too big."

LUKE

Size matters not. You must feel the force around you.

(MORE)

LUKE (CONT'D)

Feel the force of a trillion souls reaching out for life. That's more than enough energy you'll ever need. Use it Rey. Believe and you can do anything.

Rey uses the force to move the piece of planet back into the crater. It is a happy ending the enemy fleet is destroyed and the heroes celebrate.

Darth Mortouitis "That's impossible". He escapes but is grazed by the molten lava coming from the planets core. He is saved by General Regal. The lava turns him turns part of him into a Vader like suite.
