SYNOPSIS:

When the cohabitation relationship of his parent couldn't work out due to the never ending domestic violence perpetrated by his drug fiend father NASS. KHALID finds himself as a forced migrant in Nortsville; a deadly slum in the project. Years later, Khalid joins BMF CARTEL unknowingly to his now born-again father Nass where he encounters JACK LEE; a mugger and the only surviving son of THOMAS LEE, the founder of BMF CARTEL succeeded by ERIC FERG who reformed the norms and harnesses choice-less and orphan teenagers around the globe for drug trafficking operations. When Nass will find out, he would return Khalid to his mum, MARGARET in West Africa in acceptance to his failure as a father.
