She faces a decision to stray with a carnal life or return to a Christian Path. Dreama, the movie star has to decide what path to take and to decide if she wants to be with Murdock or her husband, Charles and return home.

To Walk a Christian Path

Victoria Pencock suffered a car crash resulting in a comatose for one year. She woke up one day in a hospital with her husband feeding her and singing Heaven must be missing an angel. She was so confused and said her name was Dreama Montgomery and that she had to go back to sleep and tell Murdock something. Her husband said who is Murdock a man from your dreams? Well I love you and I am the one who has been feeding you and I gave you that big diamond ring. I am your husband. She said "No Murdock is, I want my man in my dreams" They argued for a while and the next day the doctor released her to go home, it was Christmas. When she got home she did not recognize her oil pastels or her makeup. She talked to her Macaw about where she had gone and that they had guns and jewelry. He asked if she was a Murderer. The macaw thought she might have killed someone while she was away. She said "only in my dreams" Her husband had gone back to the office. She dressed quickly and drove to a nearby town. She met a striking resemblance of Murdock the man from her comatose sleep. She said she knew him from her dreams and that he was a lover. He was scared 'cause he never saw her before in his life. They went to a café and ate some food and she showed him her drivers license. It read that her name was Victoria Pencock and that she lived down the road. Following the address on the drivers license they drove there and while she hid Murdock went to the door and met her husband Charles. There was a sign on the door that read ' free oil paintings.' He said he wanted to get his picture painted with the painter of the house. Finding out that he was her husband and that she had suffered a comatose and was hospitalized for a year, he said she had escaped this afternoon when he had brought her home. He was about to call the State Police. Murdock went back to the truck and told Dreama that her name was Vicotria and that she had slipped into a coma a year ago and was hospitalized. Another words when she woke up this morning she did not know who she was and had amnesia, and left the house and drove to a town and met him. They drove to a motel and made love. Then they woke up and robbed banks and jewelry stores all the way to Hollywood,California and bought a castle home. She went out and met a gal named Brenda who also looked exactly like a girlfriend from her dreams. They became acquainted and went to a café where they became friends and Dreama told her that she was in a comatose for a year and that Brenda looked just like a gal from my slumber. She said that she was told by God that he would give back the friends from her dreams and now my dreams are coming true. Brenda contacted a Hollywood Producer and he said that he had to meet her and put her in the movies. He needed to make some movies of God. She went home and told Murdock she met Brenda, the Sheriff's wife and she is going to put her in the movies. She was so excited. She said that Brenda's husband was the Sheriff and that he was working a murder of the movie stars that got killed three days ago. She was scared cause Murdock's last name was Manson and so was the killer's name. He couldn't believe it. They soon met the producer and she put them both in the movies acting out their comatose dream. It became very famous and they became very rich. They soon had a lot of friends and did things together. They soon had babies and Brenda had a weird phone call from a nurse that she had found her long lost mother. Brenda's mother had been missing since she was a young child. They drove to see her in the institute and soon released her to go home with Brenda. They became very close and helped at the church with revivals and heavily crusading for Christ to help young teenagers get off drugs and become Christians.

One day Dreama was out driving and ran up on a Nuns covenant and talked to some nuns and became friends with Sister Sally. She told the nuns that she had messages from God that she will get some friends and become a Christian. They could not believe her she was such a beautiful creature and was so different. Sister Sally and her became close and they did things together. Their daughters soon were 18 and they entered the Miss America beauty contest. One of the contestants sang "The Impossible dream and one performed a skit with a large dinosaur made of plaster paris. She used a whip sling to hit a giant on the back of the head and claim him as her man. Several of the contestants acted and played the piano. Dreama's daughter Kentucky won the title. They met the Evangelist Billy Graham and learned how to become Christians. They used the nuns Coventry to help them teach Bible study and handed out pamphlets To Walk A Christian Path. The nuns were a big part of the revivals. She enjoyed her time with the nuns and could not believe How much fun she was having at the cathedral. Murdock and Dreama were happy in Hollywood a jealous rivalry develops between Dreama and Becky Sue over Murdock. A becoming witch uses spells and magic potions to make Becky Sue downright ugly. Dreama discovers Murdock manson is from a dangerous family and the State of Tennessee continues to search for her as a delusional disoriented patient from the snake Queens Bend Institute.

The Hollywood movie stars begin a second movie: The Haunting of the Pirates Treasure in which a beautiful gypsy witch is a palm reader and steals the diamond and emerald jewelry as she takes on traits and characteristics of the pirates. They swap mates in this film as the stars become confused and mixed up with their crazy carnal lust. Thanksgiving brings turmoil for Brooke as she suffered a car crash and almost had her legs amputated. Her husband, Mike loses State Senator as her suffered aphasia. The gang prays hard in difficult times for Brooke and Buster to heal. A celebration party with the all star cast includes the little Sister Sally whom gets drugged by mistake at the celebration party and begins to hallucinate interacting with the taxidermied animals. She changes into a minidress and high heels as she dances to Santana with Murdock at the party. She soon passes out when he tells her that his brother is Charles Manson. Sister sally meets James, a screenplay writer and becomes engaged as she enters UCLA and gets accepted to become a Speech Pathologist.

Mother Madison soon dies at a 100 years old and the screenplay takes a spinning twist as the Tennessee State Institute finds Dreama and orders her back to Tennessee and she is institutionalized in a nut house with doll mannequins to seduce. The end of the story she reaches in her pocket and pulls out a large diamond-emerald heart shaped necklace and remembered the faith she would have the night she left with Murdock and was scared and confused. She must make a decision between Murdock and her husband Charles whom she escaped when she had amnesia twenty years ago. She is so confused.

Dreama told the shrinks that she wants to remain with Murdock and head back to Hollywood where she will continue the Diamond & Emerald Series. Her husband picked her up the next day to go home. While he was taking a shower she packed some things and grabbed her macaw in his cage and waited outside in her red riding hood cape. The song "Goodbye Times" by Conway Twitty played on the stereo loudly as Murdock picked her up in a blue convertible dressed in a wolfe's mask. They escape and drive back to Hollywood.
