Synopsis

After being raped by Klaus at her birthday party, a young girl called Kat re-locate to the township of her rapist. After finding out that she has just re-located to her rapist neighbourhood, Kat opens up the secret and be-friends a young boy by the name of Olly and it happens that it isn't just her he raped. Olly is a magazine editor in school and was Klaus best friend. Olly and Klaus doesn't see eye to eye after Olly started dating with his ex-Rebeca, a former student activist at school. The problem gets bigger when Olly find out that Klaus dad, Howard, has framed his father for the murder he didn't commit.

Olly's father gets poisoned in prison to silence him, it happens that Olly's main suspect is Klaus father. Howard is a master mind criminal, he sells weapons and other merchandise to leaders from the East, east meaning Middle East Asia and further Europe like Turkey, Syria and Yemmen weapons that can starts a war. Olly and Kat decides to team and try to take Howard down using a detective that once tried but failed because he lacked evidence. Taking down Howard it was the only way to bring down Klaus, because if his father is behind bars, Klaus is powerless from the outside.

The taking down of Howard and Klaus becomes one of the challenging thing teenagers can ever imagine. Detective Owen and McGregor got Howard after a failed deal, the court failed to find Klaus guilty over his rape cases. Olly's brother Chris, took the matter into his own hands and murdered Klaus and throw his body into the moving river.

TEEN SPIRIT Concept:

The sound of a music is beeping from the outside of the house while the camera shifts, there's few heads coming out of the car heading inside the house. Before they knock, they hear chanting voices of teenagers. There's a load of teens having a party, they're pushing the girl with a birthday crown belt over her body, That's Kat, it's her birthday today. She's ha it with drinking, she looks like she's about to throw out. Kat goes to the bath room and begin to throw out. There's a knock at the bathroom door. It's a boy called Klaus she says while she asks why is he here. Klaus be a gentlemen and carries Kat to her bed room. Kat is smiling while she thanks him. Klaus puts her on her bed. He takes a moment to stare at her. Klaus tempt to kiss Kat, she blocks him. Kat refuses to kiss him while she's drunk for the sake of regrets in the morning. Klaus attempts again and she blocks again. Klaus becomes aggressive and end up raping Kat who's powerless. Kat is crying while Klaus keeps on forcing himself on her.

Two days later, Kat moves back to her mother's place since she has been living at her grandmothers since she was a kid because her parents travels a lot for the sake of work. Kat has just moved to her rapist residence. It's a first day of school, a first new day to Kat, she meets last year's students activist, Rebecca Radebe who's supposed to give her a school tour and show her around. As they approach the bathroom area Kat's eyes clutches with advancing Klaus who's coming towards them with his friends. Kat runs away to the bathrooms and begin vomiting. Rebecca follows her and tries to understand what is going on with her. Kat confesses that something happened to her but "what by who" she keeps that to herself. Kat makes new friends at school break, OLLY, SUSAN, CHRIS and DAVID. Klaus is sitting behind them with his girlfriend Jessica and his friends. Jessica notices that Kat is acting like another girl called Molly. Klaus raped Molly at a pool party, the only person who saw everything and kept quiet is Olly from the roof top. Neither is Klaus knows that Olly knows.

The first day of school ends, Olly is heading home with his girlfriend Rebecca. Rebecca wants to know if Klaus really did rape Molly or was it just accusations.

- It's in a party, a pool party. Everyone is crushed, some smacking at the rooms, some dancing inside the house. It was a warm day, and Molly goes to the pool to dehydrate and easy-up her wasted body from drinks and weed.

- Molly is swimming. Klaus dives into the water and skin deeps until he appears in front of her by the pool corner. Klaus arrogantly talks Molly who's stopping him and rapes her by the pool side.

There's Olly right there up top, shocked and doing nothing about it.

Rebecca is afraid Klaus is going to rape the people Olly loves, though she wants to know what is he's gonna do about it.

By the lake, Chris is writing his novel, it's his favourite place by this time of the day because it's quiet and inspiring with listening to the cheeping birds. Chris hears a car approaching by, Howard comes out with a woman by the name of Merry. Howard is Klaus father. Howard and Merry are having a hard hitting talk about as it turns out that Howard had Merry's daughter murdered for knowing too much about his business and frame Chris and Olly's father for it while Chris is listening to everything. Later that day, Howard mentions that he was at the river side to his son. Klaus makes him be aware about Chris visits to the river by this time of the day every week even though it's already too late. That makes Howard to visit Olly's father Daniel to make threats to him.

By the Ocean side, It's a bomb fire evening where friends get to stay together, play a little bit of music, having drinks and share deep secrets and show togetherness. Klaus has his friends and his girlfriend on the other side Olly is joined up by his late coming friends, who are Chris, David, Princess, Kat, Susan and Rebecca. Rebecca welcomes everyone and shares that her parents are getting divorced. David shares that Princess is his step sister and it made his mother to leave him and his dad. Princess is suffering from anxiety and depression, she once thought of committing suicide. Chris reveals that his father is framed by Klaus dad for the murder of Merry's daughter. Olly reveals that he hasn't juiced or drunk in a while. Everyone looks at Kat waiting for her to share her secret. Kat reveals that Klaus raped her at her birthday party. Olly interferes with that he also raped Molly at the pool party. Everything infuriates David who almost bites Olly's head. They all look at Klaus from the distance as a sign that the secret is out that he raped Kat and Molly.

The weekend passes, and now it's Monday, the opening day of school week. The girls are still talking about Kat, Klaus, Molly and David incidents happened at the beach Friday night. Klaus tails Kat to the women bathrooms to confront her on what she has told her friends at the Bomb fire. Klaus gets left with a red face after Kat revealed everything she knows about him. Rebecca's parents divorce starts to get messy when her father contests to keep their house. She finds her mother bursting in tears.

Klaus visits his mother at the Mental Institution, she greets him by telling him what he's father is keeping from everyone. She's not sick, she's being held for knowing too much too.

Olly and Chris visit their father (Daniel) at Jail. Daniel lets them know everything about Howard and how dangerous he can be. That doesn't bother the brothers who plan to get to the bottom of all of these. Daniel is sold by Merry who was paid to point Daniel as a murderer of her daughter because Daniel refused to co-operate with Howard when he wanted to stash his arms on one of his buildings.

Merry tries to exploit more money from Howard. Howard and his partner plan to kill her. Kat receives a threat coming from Klaus. A bear hung by the house veranda bleeding and written SLUT. Kat is really frightened and begins to think twice about going against Klaus.
