Viren Shah is a young boy who lives in Dallas with his parents and his older sister Nalini. He goes to “Spencer Junior High”. He is popular and is the captain of the swimming team and is also a 4.0 student. However he possesses an idiosyncrasy of nibbling his friend’s noses out of love and affection and in his senior year a girl whose name is Michelle Thompson is found murdered and her nose severed and the police officers suspect Viren. MRS. CHRISTENSEN

Well, it’s cute but you must stop it because it is a bad trait and people don’t appreciate it, so don’t do it again.

OFFICER PERRY

Sheriff, at this point we don’t have any leads but my gut tells me that the killer isn’t a stranger. It is someone from the school; I just cannot pinpoint the individual. We have to play the waiting game, that’s all.

SHERIFF TOBY

That’s fine, just keep looking and History has proven time and time again that the killer always comes face to face with the police but the cops are not able to recognise the killer. I firmly believe that the killer is right under your nose and you just have to use your sixth sense to catch him.

OFFICER PERRY

Okay, we’ll do that and we’ll find a way of catching the killer soon; my instinct tells me that our killer is the Principal, Mr. Ferguson because he comes across as being too innocent and too concerned to catch the killer, so that makes him a prime suspect.

SHERIFF TOBY

Okay, then go with your gut and close the case soon.

OFFICER PERRY

Alright Sheriff, we’ll do it, thanks.

Congratulations seniors on making it this far and all the very best to all of you for the future. I trust this year has been an eye opener for all of you and exciting as well. As for Principal Ferguson, well all I can say is that he does not matter anymore and the less I say about him, the better for us. Michelle Thompson was a wonderful student and a good girl and she will be remembered in our hearts forever. Now, I am going to call our Valedictorian, Mr. Viren Shah who has an unblemished record. Viren, please come and collect your diploma and a special award for swimming.

(Viren collects his diploma and award and the entire school claps for him. One by one the seniors collect their diplomas and then the revelry begins).

ROBERT SHAW (CONT’D)

Please enjoy yourselves seniors and have a great summer holiday. Be cool.

ALL THE SENIORS

Thanks Sir.
