ICARUS RISING
"Snappers"

Screenplay by Darren J Seeley

Story by Wayne Clark FADE IN:

INT. ICARUS - CORRIDOR - DAY

An army of large prehistoric turtles advances towards the door to the Control Room.

Several hiss in unison.

The door opens.

Armed with paint guns, and safety goggles, BRANDON and NAOMI peer out.

BRANDON
They’re just turtles. What can they do?

NAOMI
Just zap ‘em.

ERIC (O.S.)
Just do it.

BRANDON
Harmless. We could walk around them. I mean. Come on. Like I’m really scared.

ORIRIS the mantis alien looks out over Brandon’s shoulder.

BRANDON
Please don’t do that.

Oriris tips his triangular head.

The first wave of turtles spring up, massive shells pound on the walls of the shuttle and around the door.

Thump! Thump! Thump!

BRANDON
Turtles can’t jump! Not even big thawed out ones!

Naomi blasts a random turtle.
Blue paint splatters all over its shell, face.
Turtle skims like a stone across a river of its kin.
Lands in a small open corner.
Legs flail about like a helpless child.

The assault on the shuttle continues, sparks of wires shoot off.
INT. ICARUS - COMMAND ROOM - CONTINUOUS

Jason’s headset flickers.

JASON
Ashley, Eric, I need you two in...

A rouge turtle bounces in the room, launches itself at Jason’s chair. Jason taps a console. The ship tilts, the turtle misses him and the chair by inches.

ERIC
Hey! Enough of that!

The ship levels. Ashley shoots red paint over the turtle. Red turtle’s head pops out, cries in protest.

BRANDON
This was a bad idea!

More turtles get through the door, knock over Oriris. Oriris scrambles, tosses his attacker over to BARTENDER.

BARTENDER
Now hold on just a minute -

Ducks out of the way as the turtle whacks against the wall.

Bartender grabs a chrome pipe from the floor. Turns to swat the turtle.

It jumps on him, beak mouth crunches down on the center of the metal pipe.

Forces Bartender to land on his ass.

Struggles with the prehistoric turtle for control of the pipe...

Pipe breaks in two.

Turtle about to lunch on Bartender’s neck...

Ashley blinds it with a blotch of red.

Oriris’ arm shoots out, knocks the turtle off Bartender.

ERIC
Do something, Jason!

JASON
Doing it.
Jason taps the console.
Waits a few seconds... Nothing.
Punches in another code.
Turtles hurl themselves at Brandon and Naomi.
Brandon taps a device next to the door.
Door closes.
Hail of dents form, bang against the other side of the door.

JASON
Not working -

BRANDON
Try something else!

JASON
Alright. Hang on to something!
Hopefully this will work -

ERIC
Not again! You are not rocking this thing one more -

JASON
Hang on!

ORIRIS
Whatever human is going to do...

JASON
That’s not it...

ASHLEY
Jason!

A turtle jumps up on Jason’s lap, mouth clamps down on part of the armrest, attacks it more like a mad dog than a turtle.

Jason slaps it on the head. It lets go of the chair, and snaps at his fingers.

Jason’s other hand balls into a fist and slams own on part of the console.

The turtle, and everything and everyone but him and Oriris--FLOAT up in the air.
INT. MEDICAL LAB - MOMENTS LATER

Tom rises to the ceiling. His eyes dart about as nano-bots drift off him.

His nose presses against the surface.

   TOM
   Wonderful.

INT. COMMAND ROOM - MOMENTS LATER

Brandon and Naomi drift like astronauts in zero gravity.

Oriris lashes out, hits one of the painted Red Turtles. The turtle protests as it floats away. The turtle snaps at Ashley’s right heel, misses.

   ASHLEY
   What are doing, you stupid overgrown insect?

   ORIRIS
   Overgrown insect. Still learning your language, methods.

   ASHLEY
   Okay. Understand this. Don’t do that again.

   ORIRIS
   Can you push one over to me? I might be able to kill it.

   ERIC
   There’s a few to choose from in here, Ori...whatever Your name is.

   ORIRIS
   Oriris.

   ERIC

   BRANDON
   That’s not helping either.

   ORIRIS
   Doing the best I can.
JASON
Oriris, If one of them bites through the translator, nobody will understand you.

ORIRIS
I’ll learn -

JASON
All you’re going to do is bat them around.

ORIRIS
Bat them?

BARTENDER
Oriris - you said you were part of some sort of salvage crew or something?

ORIRIS Correct.

BARTENDER
Was there anything you brought on board with you, anything you can use?

ORIRIS
Don’t know if it was working.

BARTENDER
So you did bring something.

ORIRIS
We brought it before we knew we had to bring it and brought a few other objects after we brung it.

Puzzlement on everyone’s faces. Even the turtles look clueless.

NAOMI
Oh. Techspeak.

BRANDON
So you know what the bug’s talking about?

NAOMI
Not really.
JASON
I think what they’re asking if there’s anything that might get the turtles off the ship.

ORIRIS
There is such an item, if we remembered to bring it after we brought -

BRANDON
Yes or no, bug.

ORIRIS
Not sure. If we brought -

BRANDON
Shut up and help us.

Oriris nods. Steps over to the Nano-pod panel. Taps on it with his foreleg.

Knock. Knock.

BRANDON
What’s he doing?

ASHLEY
Tom.

Ashley takes a breath, exhales. She can see her breath.

ASHLEY
What the -

NAOMI
Yes. Temperature's dropping.

Jason looks to the ripped armrest.

JASON
We have five minutes before the ship shuts down.

ORIRIS
All freeze. Two thousand years.

Brandon floats over to Oriris. A turtle snaps away near him, but Eric grabs it from behind, moves it away.
MEDICAL LAB - MOMENTS LATER

Tom hears a tap on the other side of the wall. He’s still on the ceiling.

TOM
I don’t know if I like this...

BRANDON (O.S.)
Tom! Listen up. There’s some sort of weapon in the medical lab with you.

TOM Weapon?

BRANDON
A gun. A ray gun.

TOM
Ray gun!

BRANDON
Where is it?

TOM
You don’t know?

BRANDON
Hard to understand the bug.

Tom turns to look below him, cranes over too far...the alien mummy stares him in the face. In his face. Tom cries out a protest.

BRANDON
Gonna have to cowboy up. Ray gun’s in there with you. I think.

TOM
You think?

BRANDON
Find it! Fast!

Tom turns his whole body around. The alien mummy practically hugs him. Tom pushes it away from him, but changes his mind.

Pats down the mummy. Dust shakes off the corpse.

BRANDON
What are you doing in there?
TOM
Think I found it! I found it! I found it!

BRANDON
Wonderful!

Snap! Brandon pulls out “the gun”.
It’s an alien bone!
The rest of the mummy floats away...

BRANDON
Okay! Here’s how you use it...listening?

TOM
Yeah. All ears!

Tom pushes off the ceiling, drifts to the table. Nano-bots scurry out of the way.
Tom grasps the tables edges, pulls forward.
Looks under the table.
Not a gosh darn thing.

BRANDON (O.S.)
There is a small slide release level on the left side of the handle. Then turn it around.

TOM
Hang on just a minute...

Tom turns himself mid-air, gets a look under the other table.

A look of frustration. Shrugs. Pulls himself closer, grabs the thing that looks like a retrofitted squirt-gun. The barrel of the gun is closed off.

Upside-down, Tom cradles the gun.

Slide, left handle...

Tom finds it. A white lightning pulse of energy in the container.
Glides in the air to the side door.
INT. CORRIDOR - MOMENTS LATER

Tom floats at a side angle, aims the weapon...not sure what to shoot at. He sees a turtle with blue paint over its shell.

Blue turtle chomps on a piece of wiring. Let's go of his meal. The light system flickers, dies.

Tom shoots. The energy pulse shoots out from under his back right armpit. Blows a hole through the wall behind him. Thrusts him forward in a mid-air cartwheel.

Tom realizes his error, turns the gun around. Zaps the Blue Turtle. Tom flops backward. Electrocutes another floating turtle. A dozen or so more turtles floating to his right. Random shots. It's like a bumper pool.

INT. COMMAND ROOM - DAY

Nano-bots scurry around the door, repair the last of the dents. They clear away.

The door opens.

Tom floats in, worse for wear.

Everyone except Jason holds a turtle by the back.

JASON
Okay. Let them go.

ASHLEY
Wouldn't these be like, endangered species?

BARTENDER
Just let the turtles go.

They all release the turtles. The turtles drift over to Tom.

TOM
Figures it would be my problem.

Aims, fires away. Zap-Zap-Zap.
Jason taps a code in the console. Everyone falls to the floor.

Naomi sits up, smile on her pretty nerd face.

NAOMI
So what was it like?

TOM
Chill it, girlfriend.

Oriris approaches Tom, Tom hands him the gun.

Oriris inspects it.

ORIRIS
After a few thousand years, re-awakened nano-probe would fix.

JASON
Is there anything else on board?

ORIRIS
Gear in chamber. Had to bring before we brung -

JASON
Yes or no will do.

ORIRIS
Yes. They would help move things off ship.

ERIC
And on?

ORIRIS
Yes. But there may also be the -

BARTENDER
Do you have a ship near here?

Nods upward.

ORIRIS
Transport. Once in danger, ship left.

BARTENDER
Left you for dead.

ORIRIS
Don’t know. Just left.
Nano-bots carry off dead turtles into the secret compartments.

Oriris carries the gun and lays it down near the compartment.

JASON
Someone’s going to have to go into the chamber, have a look around. Find anything, keep us informed.

NAOMI
Me and Tom will go!

TOM
Wait a second. I -

ORIRIS
Great idea. Bold for humans to volunteer.

ERIC
Going to need some chairs.

ASHLEY
I need a drink.

BARTENDER
With you there.

Jason waves them off the conversation.

JASON
Nanobots will be busy on repairs. I want to get the shuttle up and running.

FADE OUT.
