INT. DOCTOR'S OFFICE - DAY

A DOCTOR looks straight at the camera, wearing a lab coat and a stethoscope. He addresses the audience directly.

DOCTOR

Hello. I'm Doctor Peter Goldberg. And I have one question for my male viewers out there. Has this ever happened to you?

INT. UPSCALE RESTAURANT - DAY

ROBERT and MARIE sit at a table with plates in front of them and menus in their hands. ROBERT is scrawny, looks sickly, and looks very sad while MARIE looks content and confident. They are both wearing expensive clothes.

ROBERT

Marie...I'm really sorry...but you and me...well, we're just not working out.

MARIE

You are NOT breaking up with me Robert. Not now, not tomorrow, not ever.

ROBERT

(sighing)
I'm not breaking up with you.

INT. DOCTOR'S OFFICE - DAY

The DOCTOR addresses the audience.

DOCTOR

Gentlemen, thanks to a new medical procedure, you will no longer be pushed around by your female counterparts. I call it the "Testicle Transplant." What many men could not do with two testes, they can now do with three. Just look at what all that extra testosterone can do for you.

INT. UPSCALE RESTAURANT - DAY

ROBERT is enraged and acting overly masculine while MARIE

sobs in her hands.

(shouting)

I'm breaking up with you! And then I'm taking home our super hot waitress and doing nasty, disgusting things to her.

MARIE

(still crying)

Why are you being such a jerk?!

ROBERT

I answer to no one! Where's that steak I ordered?!

INT. DOCTOR'S OFFICE - DAY

The DOCTOR addresses the audience.

DOCTOR

Side effects may include: wearing flannel shirts, smoking Cubans, driving a snow plow in mid July, chopping down an entire forest with just an axe, watching the 300 on repeat, a refusal to eat hot dogs and popsicles, and impregnating more women than your average guest on the Maury Povich Show. If you're still hesitant about the procedure, well, just look at Robert now.

INT. UPSCALE RESTAURANT - DAY

ROBERT gets on top of the table, rips open his shirt, and bangs on his chest like a gorilla. MARIE is still crying.

ROBERT

Freeeeedom!

INT. DOCTOR'S OFFICE - DAY

The DOCTOR addresses the audience.

DOCTOR

Call now for your free consultation.

You'll be glad you did. I know Robert sure is.

INT. UPSCALE RESTAURANT - DAY

The entire restaurant is on fire. MARIE and several other restaurant patrons stand on a single tabletop, huddled together. They look terrified. ROBERT runs around with a chainsaw in his hands and laughs hysterically

INT. DOCTOR'S OFFICE - DAY

The DOCTOR is shocked and stares wide-eyed at the camera.

Oh my god...

(snaps out of bewilderment)

Remember folks, the testicle transplant is only available in Mexico. That's right, the "Cojones Transplanto" is only available in Mexico and can be performed by a "Doctor Pedro Goldbergo." Bon voyage!

The DOCTOR waves and quickly runs off screen.
