FADE IN:

EXT. SUBURBAN HOUSE - NIGHT

A house adorned with a beautifully kept lawn.

Moonlight helps to enrich the view.

INT. SUBURBAN HOUSE - LIVING ROOM - NIGHT

The place is exorbitant. Every showpiece placed highlights money.

INT. SUBURBAN HOUSE - BEDROOM - NIGHT

Equally lavish as the living room.

On a king-size bed lies a pricey black cocktail dress with a same-level black handbag.

From the bathroom steps out, GIA(40s), stunningly beautiful. A towel draped around her.

She looks at a mirror, admires her face.

A notification alert comes from her phone.

She picks it and opens a photo. It shows a handsome MAN in a black tuxedo.

Gia smiles.

A message appears. It reads - How do I look?

She replies - Terrific!

The Man replies - I'll be there in ten minutes.

Gia puts down her phone and quickly changes into her black dress.

She again looks at the mirror, admires her dress.

Slowly, she frowns as she touches her face.

Gia opens her massive wardrobe. Wide range of dresses in it.

She opens a SECRET COMPARTMENT with her fingerprint scan.

The compartment is lined with different FEMALE HUMAN FACE SKINS.

She considers her options, then carefully picks one from the selection along with a SCALPEL placed at one corner.

Gia in front of the mirror carefully slices around her face with the scalpel.

She PEELS OFF the skin from her face.

A REDDISH-GREEN SLIME covers the entirety.

She puts back the skin in the compartment and closes it.

Gia picks up the new skin, puts it on her face, and sticks it firmly.

She's a completely NEW PERSON now. Stunning, nonetheless.

Gia again looks at herself in the mirror. She beams with joy.

A CAR HORN blasts from the outside.

Gia quickly grabs her handbag and departs.
